Dear Parents/Carers

The Extreme Reading Challenge

Last year, in the lead up to World Book Day, we introduced the 'Extreme Reading Challenge'. This was a great success so we are repeating it this year.

For those of you who weren't here last year, the idea is that at Victoria we love reading so much we don't just do it when we're sitting in the classroom, at the library, at home on the sofa or in bed, we do it anywhere. Literally! The challenge we have given your children is to read a book, comic or magazine in as unusual a place as possible, between now and World Book Day (Thursday 7 March).

If you're going away on holiday at half term, the unusual place might be overseas, or in front of a famous landmark. If not, it might be closer to home but in a location you wouldn't normally expect someone to choose for reading. We gave them some ideas to inspire them in assembly on Monday, but I'm sure they'll come up with some great ideas of their own.

Wherever your child decides to read, please take a photo of them and send it into school before Wednesday 6 March, in an envelope marked clearly with their name and class. Please only submit one photo per child, so if they read in lots of different places, ask them to choose their favourite. There will be one winner per year group and these will be announced on World Book Day.

Happy reading!
