Personal data

Under the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), personal data is defined as:

“any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); and identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person”.

How we use your information

This privacy notice tells you how we, Nonsuch Primary School, will collect and use you and your child's personal data for the purposes of education, communication, safeguarding and payment processing.

Why does Nonsuch Primary School need to collect and store personal data?

We are required to collect and store personal data in order to comply with legal obligations to ensure children receive education, attend school regularly and are kept safe. In any event we are committed to ensuring that the information we collect and use is appropriate for this purpose, and does not constitute an invasion of your privacy. In terms of being contacted for marketing purposes we would contact you for additional consent.

Will Nonsuch Primary School share my personal data with anyone else?

We may pass your personal data on to third-party service providers as part of our routine processing. Any third parties that we may share your data with are obliged to keep your details securely and to use them only to fulfil the service they provide you on our behalf. When they no longer need your data to fulfil this service, they will dispose of the details in line with our own procedures. If we wish to pass your sensitive personal data on to a third party we will only do so once we have obtained your consent, unless we are legally required to do otherwise.

How will Nonsuch Primary School use the personal data it collects about me?

Nonsuch Primary School will process (collect, store and use) the information you provide in a manner compatible with the EU's General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up-to-date, and not keep it for longer than is necessary. Nonsuch Primary School is required to retain information in accordance with the law, please see our Retention Policy for details.

The information you provide will be subject to rigorous measures and procedures to minimise the risk of unauthorised access or disclosure.

Can I find out the personal data that Nonsuch Primary School holds about me/my child?
