

Photography Guidance

Guidance concerning showing children's photographs on the website:

You will see that there are photographs of the children and their work throughout the website/blog. We feel that a picture is worth a thousand words when showing people what our children do whilst they are at school. The website is an important forum to share our children's activities, to show them working and playing at school and to showcase the best of their work.

Pictures of children:

We will not name the children in the pictures; if captioned, the text with the picture will refer to child's class and the activity or work taking place.

Pictures of children work:

We will identify the child by class and forename and a surname initial if there is more than one child with that forename in the class.

When your child joins the school, as part of the enrolment process, we ask for your permission to take photographs and to use them as per our General Consent Form. The General Consent Form is updated annually but if at any time you wish to amend the permission please see the school office. Any change in permission needs to be made in writing.

- In all school activities we will encourage and support children, staff, suppliers and visitors to consider best use of materials; minimise waste of all types; be economical with energy, heat, light and water and consider the impact of their activities on the school and its finances, on the community and on the wider global environment.

Our Statement of Equality and Inclusion - Summary

Our school is committed to the development and encouragement of all of our pupils and staff. We recognise the positive contribution the school makes to the local community, our stakeholders, parents and partners. By treating all of our school family and friends with dignity and respect we encompass the key aims of the Equality Act 2010 and the general duties. This is also echoed in our school values. Inclusion and accessible learning is key to our success, as is the development of our staff. We work to remove barriers to learning and engagement in all that we do as well as allowing for opportunities for dialogue and better understanding between different people. Everyone is unique and we value this daily.
