

World Book Day & Red Nose Day

Dear Parents/ Carers

14th February 2019

On our return to school after the half term break, there are two events which I thought some advance notice would be helpful. Please see details below in order to help you plan.

WORLD BOOK DAY Thursday 7th March 2019

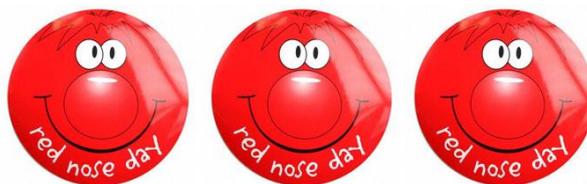

As part of our World Book Day celebrations, we are asking all children to come to school on Thursday 7th March dressed as a character from a favourite book or in a costume linked to our school theme which is Knights and Castles. We hope that this advance notice will allow you and your child time to plan the outfit over the half term break.

Also on this day, local author Alex Marchant will be coming into school to speak to children in Years 4-6 about her books 'The Order of the White Boar' & 'The King's Man'. Alex will also be in the school hall at 3.15pm to sign copies of the books should you wish to purchase. The books target audience is upper KS2.

World Book Day tokens will be sent home after the half term holiday. The tokens are valid from 28 February – 31 March 2019.

RED NOSE DAY Non-Uniform Day & Red Tombola Friday 15th March 2019

Once again we shall be supporting this very worthwhile charity and are inviting children to come to school in non uniform (red hair/faces/noses optional!) in exchange for a £1 donation on Friday 15th March 2019.

We are also going to run a Red Tombola after school and would like to ask for donations of red items e.g. tinned tomatoes, ketchup, red stationery items, red toiletries etc. If these can be brought into the school office from Monday 25th February, it will give us time to ticket up the items.

Thanking you in anticipation of your support.
