Dear Parents

World Book Day

This year we will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 7th March.

We are taking a whole school approach this year and have chosen the theme of 'Toys'. Each class will take part in literacy and cross-curricular activities in class linked to the theme delivered by class teachers. As part of our celebrations, we are asking the children (and staff!) to come to school dressed up linked to our theme of 'Toys'.

We are also extremely excited to be inviting Mark Powers; author of the 'Spy Toys' trilogy in to school. Mark will deliver a whole school assembly and work in years 2,3,4 and 5 to deliver an exciting "Show Don't Tell" creative writing workshop. The cost of this workshop will be £4.00 and we hope you will agree that this is an invaluable experience to work with a successful published children's author. Mark will also be available for a book signing at the end of the day. Should you wish for your child to receive a signed copy of 'Spy Toys' please fill out the form below with payment no later than Tuesday 26th February and come along to the school hall at the end of the day on World Book Day to meet Mark in person. You can find out more about the book by visiting here <http://spytoysbooks.com/>

To celebrate our love of books further, we have also arranged for a Travelling Books book fair. Children will look at the books on Thursday 28th February and the Book Fair will be open on Monday 4th and Tuesday 5th March after school in the school hall.

We hope it will be an enjoyable, fun day for all and look forward to seeing the children's wonderful costumes!

Yours sincerely

Miss Platt
