13th February 2019

Dear Parent/Carer,

As part of our focus on reading we have arranged for the famous children's author, Nick Butterworth, to visit the school.

On Thursday 28th February 2019 Nick will be with us for the morning taking various workshops using his books.

Nick has kindly agreed to bring some pre-signed copies of his books, which can be purchased online through the School Gateway. A list of books available will be displayed in the school office and also on the noticeboards.

If you would like to purchase any of the books then you need to place your order no later than Monday 25th February 2019, unfortunately they will not be available to purchase after this date.

Please note that the books can only be purchased online using your School Gateway account.

Yours sincerely,
