

English:

Recount writing- our holiday
Narrative- planning and writing a bedtime story
Report writing- Saving water

Grammar:

- Tenses revision (simple/ continuous past, present and future)
 - Subject specific/ technical vocabulary in context,
 - How to use colons/ semi-colons, ellipsis
- Correctly embedding dialogue

Guided Reading: 'The Piano' by Aidan Gibbons and 'Alma' by Rodrigo Blaas

Why is the Thames so important to London?

Science : Water (CCL geography)

- Where water comes from (sources, recycling)
- Different states of water and the processes of water changing states.
- The water cycle.

Maths :

Percentages- completing our work on FDP. (finding a percentage of a number, finding increases and reductions)

Ratio and Algebra- Using rules, substitution, formulae, problem solving, equations, the ratio symbol, scale factors, proportion problems

Converting units- converting metric/ imperial, metric to metric, time, word problems

Revision of number and calculation skills is ongoing.

Art & DT : Landscapes (including water)

Geography: Rivers

Rivers of the UK

Rivers in relation to settlements and how they have been/ are used,

Rivers in relation to the water cycle (sources, mouths, parts of a river journey)

French: Time

- How to tell the time,
- What time will it be at?
- Reading time tables.

Computing : Spreadsheets

- Data collection and input,
- Understand the terms row, column and cell,
- Use formulae,
- Create a graph

Music: At the Movies

Exploring notation, narrative and storyboarding the structure of sounds.

PSHE: Growing and changing

Our different skills, feelings, star qualities, helpful or unhelpful, managing change

RE: Is Easter a festival of new life or sacrifice?

- Lent
- Palm Sunday
- Significance of the Last Supper

Games (Thursday with Mr Fenton)

Invasion games- strategy, team work, control, passing

Homework

4 x reads a week aloud to an adult (who records this in their record)
Maths will be given out by the Friday, to be handed back in by the following Wednesday.

Weekly spellings will also be given out by the Friday for children to be tested on the following Friday.

Please log into Spelling Shed when possible to practise (or alternatively, visit Spelling Shed Club on Friday with Mrs Bolton)

Project homework will be handed out separately.