

WORLD BOOK DAY

Thursday 7th March

You are invited to come into school dressed as a book character and bring the book along too!

Take a photograph of you reading in an unusual place and bring it along on World Book Day!

We will also be taking part in lots of exciting reading activities in our classes and around school 😊

We can't wait to see your costumes and your photographs too!