New Walk Museum

Wagtails had a ROARsome time at New Walk Museum, Leicester, on Wednesday, learning more about dinosaurs to support their topic this term.

“At the museum we held a fossil. We saw a big dinosaur. Gary showed us lots of dinosaur things.” Eddie

“At the museum we saw a dinosaur. We saw and held fossils. Gary showed us the dinosaurs.” Henry

Gurdwara Visit

Kestrels were also out and about on Wednesday, visiting the Guru Tegh Badahur Gurwara and Sikh museum in Leicester to bring their learning about the Sikh faith to life.

“It made me feel very welcome and warm because it didn’t matter who you were they treated you all the same.” Ellie

“The food in the Langar was lush!” Will L

“The outside of the building was like offices but the inside was really welcoming and like a house. I loved it.” Emily

“When I first entered the Gurdwara I felt welcomed and comforted. It was quiet, and we had to wash our hands and take our shoes off.” Nevaeh (This is so that no pollutants enter the prayer room).

“I just wanted to let you know how much my daughter enjoyed the school visit to the Sikh temple yesterday. She has not stopped talking about it and learnt so much. In fact she wants to go back! Really worthwhile school trip and would recommend the school doing again.”

A year 5 mum

...and on Friday afternoon we will be celebrating the 100th Day of School with an afternoon of maths based challenges in our house teams. What a lovely way to end the term!
