Cookies statements

What are cookies?

Cookies are text files containing small amounts of information which are downloaded to your device when you visit a website. Cookies are then sent back to the originating website on each subsequent visit, or to another website that recognises that cookie. They are widely used to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owners of the site.

Why we use cookies

Cookies do lots of different jobs, like letting you navigate between pages efficiently, remembering your preferences, and generally improve the user experience. They can also help to ensure that adverts you see online are more relevant to you and your interests.

By using our website, you agree that we can place cookies on your device.

How we categorise cookies

The cookies used on this website have been categorised based on the categories found in the ICC UK Cookie guide. A list of all the cookies used on this website by category is set out below:

Each schools IT Team must identify the cookies which are commonly used on their website as follows:

Title	Key	Description/purpose
Google Analytics	Low	Monitor and analyse web page usage to improve the content and user experience

IT Team may also want to additionally list the cookies in a separate table for further info as follows:

Name	Category	Impact of blocking	Expires
Jsessionid	Low	Preserves users states across page requests	session

How do I change my cookie settings?

Most web browsers allow some control of most cookies through the browser settings. To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set, visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

Find out how to manage cookies on popular browsers:

- Google Chrome

- Microsoft Edge

- Mozilla Firefox

- Microsoft Internet Explorer

- Opera

- Apple Safari

To find information relating to other browsers, visit the browser developer's website.