7th March 2019

Dear Parents & Carers,

The children have thoroughly enjoyed Book Week! Bedtimes Stories was very popular and we had a great parade of costumes today in our Celebration Assembly. The Book Fair will arrive at school on Thursday 21st March for a week. Children will receive their World Book Day Tokens today. These can be used at the school book fair.

Homework

Thank you for returning your feedback forms for the homework. Please find attached letter in response.

Purple Friday

Our school is proud to be a part of the Havering community. We are deeply saddened by the devastating and senseless loss of Jodie Chesney. As a show of solidarity against knife crime some of our staff will be joining the peaceful march against knife crime this evening. The march starts at 7.30pm from Atlanta Boulevard Romford (by Fitness First).

In memory of Jodie, Havering Sixth Form College have planned 'Purple Friday' for tomorrow, 8th of March. You may have already seen lots of purple ribbons around the borough. We would like to decorate our reading tree in the playground with purple decorations. If you wish, you could bring a purple ribbon to tie to our tree tomorrow.

FOLIS Coffee Morning – tomorrow

Don't forget – it's the Friends of Langtons Infants Coffee Morning tomorrow in our school hall. The School Nurse will also be in attendance if you have any questions regarding your child's health.

50p Sale

We raised a fantastic £106!! Thank you to all who donated.

Red Nose Day – 15th March

As you are aware, the School Council asked if they could celebrate Red Nose Day on Friday, 15th March. Amongst other things, the children want us to have a 'Dress Red to Impress' Day. Please see attached letter for more information.

Scooter Spectacular – A reminder!

The deadline for handing in the posters for 'Bling up your Scooter' Day on 29th April is tomorrow, Friday 8th March.

Dates for your diary

Please see below 'Dates for your diary' for the Spring Term. There will be more dates added as we go along, so please keep checking.
