

The Pathways Partnership provides each trainee with an excellent opportunity to train in two of its successful schools through a bespoke programme designed in partnership with Leeds Trinity University.

The size and diversity of the partnership means you will have access to the best of primary practice in a variety of fields.

Where care and learning go hand in hand

