

Shawlands Primary School Newsletter

Friday 8th March 2019

Well, a year ago we were all at home building snowmen and putting World Book Day costumes on them, but this year we have managed to celebrate on the day itself! It's always great to see all the different and imaginative costumes the children (and staff) manage to think up!

It's also been great to see the amazing support for the book fair, which has been so successful this year. Thank you to everyone who came along - I know space was a bit limited so thank you for bearing with us and I hope everyone enjoys reading their new books. I'd also like to say a big thank you to Mrs Ogden and Miss Brain who ran it.

We are looking at having a safety barrier installed for the entrance to the car park to ensure only staff and visitors can park in it. In the meantime, please make sure that if you are dropping off or collecting children that you park on the road or in the Horizon car park. We are still having the same few people using the car park, especially when picking up from morning nursery and from after school clubs.

All the after school clubs started this week, with the exception of the KS1 and KS2 football clubs which start next week. It's been lovely to see the range of activities on offer, from Lego to chess, baking to basketball and table tennis to football. There are still a few places available for some of the clubs, if your child would like to book one please contact office@shawlandsprimaryschool.co.uk and we can sort this out for you as most of the clubs have now closed for online bookings. It is important that you book on for clubs for your child as we need your consent for your child to stay.

We had more sporting success this week, with the Table Tennis team achieving 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th in the individual tournament – well done to all the children who took part and especially the winners, and thanks to Mrs Gilroy for top-class training!

Next Friday is Red Nose Day. It will be a non-uniform day with children being asked to bring a donation in for Comic Relief. We are really looking forward to our Red Nose Day Talent show which is taking place on the Friday morning. Each class will be auditioning acts throughout the week, with one act per class being put through to the 'final' on the day itself.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support.
