

Welcome to the Art Ascend Online Competition

Proudly hosted by Bullseye Arts LLC

Art Ascend is not just a competition — it's a global movement built to elevate artists and connect them with a passionate community of collectors and supporters. With an unprecedented $1 million prize pool, we've created one of the most accessible, rewarding, and inspiring art competitions in the world today.

Entry is open to artists worldwide — simply pay a $5 submission fee per artwork, with a maximum of 10 submissions per artist. We believe creative potential should never be limited by financial barriers, which is why we're offering a special Early Bird rate of just $2 per artwork for the first 10 days of the submission period. Artists from around the globe are invited to submit work in one of ten vibrant categories, with visibility, recognition, and real opportunities to advance their careers.

What sets Art Ascend apart is its community-powered model. Supporters cast votes by purchasing points, with each vote directly increasing the prize pool and sustaining future artist initiatives. A prize tracker keeps everything transparent — you'll see how each vote builds impact.

We are honored to announce that world-renowned master artist Zhaoming Wu will serve as the official juror for the Art Ascend Online Competition. As one of the most respected figures in contemporary fine art, Master Zhaoming Wu will personally review top entries from each category and select the top three award winners. This is an incredibly rare and valuable opportunity for artists around the world to receive professional recognition from a grand master. In addition to the juried awards, each category will also feature a People's Choice Award, determined by public voting, allowing art lovers worldwide to participate and celebrate artistic excellence and impact. Furthermore, the Bullseye Arts panel will carefully select 10 finalists in each category based on creativity, technique, and overall expression.
