LOGISTICS CLUSTER GLOBAL MEETING
23-25 NOVEMBER 2015, BUDAPEST, HUNGARY
FEEDBACK SURVEY RESULTS

ORGANISATIONS

- United Nations Agencies: 28%
- Non-Governmental Organisations: 54%
- Government: 11%
- International Organisations: 7%

POST-2015 STRATEGY

Satisfaction with the proposed Post-2015 Strategy development process

- Moderately: 26%
- Completely: 11%
- Very: 63%

Fulfilled reason for attending

- Completely: 81%
- Partially: 19%

PARTICIPANT FACTS

Reasons for attending

- 75% Influence the future of the Logistics Cluster
- 71% Exchange ideas
- 75% Make new connections
- 46% Know more about the Logistics Cluster
- 57% Learn about new topics
- 25% To present a project
- 43% Collect new information
- 71% Represent my organisation

100%
Sufficient opportunities to interact and network with other attendees

100%
Just the right amount of information about the meeting was communicated prior to its beginning

Satisfied with the proposed Post-2015 strategy timeline moving forward
“I attended the meeting to support the concept of common responsibility and ownership of the Logistics Cluster”

“Very interactive. Everyone is engaged. This will positively impact the adaptation and implementation of the new strategy”

“My first attendance at the Global meeting - excellent coverage of topics”

This meeting was orientated towards the Post-2015 Strategy, it was good to spend some time on this very structuring piece for the coming years.

Best rated content

Global Logistics Cluster Post-2015 Strategy

Satisfied with variety of content

- Moderately 18%
- Slight 4%
- Completely 11%

Rating the organisation of the event

- Excellent 79%
- Satisfactory 21%

Ideas for the next meeting

- Capacity building and empowerment during emergency response.
- Ways to increase our impact through local NGOs and building relations with governments and authorities during a humanitarian emergency.
- How to prepare for the next crisis due to El Nino.
- Stockpiling and pre-positioning as a community.
- Preparedness, operational challenges, transparency.