Airport Transfers

There are two bus companies – Airlink Express and AirCoach connecting Dublin Airport to the city centre. Please see here for more information.

There are taxis available in the forecourts directly outside Terminals 1 and 2, with signage to designated taxi ranks. The fare from the airport to the city centre is approximately 20 to 30 euros.

Transport and Other Information

Dublin is well served by public transport with a number of options to get around the city, including bus, train and light rail. Find more information on public transport in Dublin here.

Croke Park is a fifteen minute walk from the city centre. The closest train station is Drumcondra which is located at the intersection of Drumcondra and Conliffe Roads, a five minute walk from the stadium.

Costs

Lunch:

- For participants, lunch as well as tea, coffee and snacks will be provided during meeting days.

Dinner:

- For those who confirm, information on the dinner events will be shared closer to the date. Unless otherwise communicated at a later stage, participants are not provided dinner, however joint dinner opportunities will be organized at the participant's own cost.

Please be aware that all costs for transport to and from the airport and social events, as well as accommodation for the duration of the meeting must be covered by participants.

Meet and Greet Event

The Logistics Cluster would like to welcome any attendees who will be arriving in Dublin on 23 September to an informal 'Meet and Greet' event. The time and location will be shared closer to the date. Please note that any costs associated with this event will be covered by participants.

Visas

It is the responsibility of each attendee to check visa requirements for Ireland based on their country of citizenship, and to obtain any necessary visas or permissions. Invitation letters to assist in the visa process can be issued as required. To request an invitation letter, please email hq_im_rome@wfp.org.

Dress Code and Weather in Dublin

The dress code for the meeting is smart casual.

Please note that the average temperatures in Dublin at this time of year range from 9° to 18° Celsius.

Administrative Questions

Please direct all administrative questions to hq_im_rome@wfp.org.

We look forward to welcoming you to Dublin!
