

Release your inner rock God!

We're looking for four performers to create the ultimate rock band – 'Europa Knights'

We need a lead singer, a guitar player, a bass player (hey! we don't know what they do either, but every band has one!) and a drummer!

Now before you audition for the band ... a quick disclaimer!

The spirit of this is a loving homage to rock bands that just love to rock!

We're not being nasty or taking the p*ss!

This is a band that do what they do ... entertain and rock hard!

Now, for those about to rock, we salute you.

Lead Singer

The casting of our lead singer is absolutely crucial to the success of this campaign. We need someone with LSD - lead singer disease!!!

A great frontman is like no one you have ever met. We're looking for a confident presence, a charismatic frontman, who is able to harness and direct the band's energy and intensity and make it more than just some people playing some songs. Our leader of the band needs to exude honesty, genuineness and be a born entertainer.

So we're looking for someone, who will be a willing collaborator, physically fit / 20 – 35 years old / male / white.

Guitar Player

Don't tell the lead singer ... but the guitar player is the talent in this band. He's the one who writes all the music and lyrics!!!

Our guitarist needs to have stage presence and be in complete control of his guitar, ... they need to be a master of the guitarists power stance, groove with the music, have a few performing tricks such as pointing your headstock in different directions and lift the neck of the guitar at appropriate moments in the song. They must possess a certain charisma and charm that draws in an audience and commands their full attention.

We're not looking for someone who can actually play the guitar, although that would be an advantage, we're looking for someone who can mime and fake playing the guitar with confidence and style.

They need to be physically fit / 20 – 35 years old / male / any ethnicity.

Bass Player

Let's be honest, the bass player isn't the star of our band, but in his mind, he is!!!

Our bass player is the most approachable band member and is a firm fan favourite. He's an affable, happy-go-lucky confident performer, who has complete control of his bass, grooves with the music and loves every moment of being in this band.

We're not looking for someone who can actually play the bass guitar, although that would be an advantage, we're looking for someone who can mime and fake playing the bass with confidence and style.

They need to be physically fit / 20 – 35 years old / male / any ethnicity.

Drummer

Last but not least, the backbone of the band, the drummer.

Drummers aren't usually in the spotlight, but our drummer draws the audience in because he brings all the energy and drive. This performer is in complete control of his life and his environment and has a special bond with the bass player; they are best friends from school and started the band together.

We're not looking for someone who can actually play the drums, although that would be an advantage, we're looking for someone who can brilliantly mime and fake playing the drums with confidence and style.

They need to be physically fit / 20 – 35 years old / male / any ethnicity.
