

THE ONLY WAY OUT IS DOWN

CASTING CALL

heist comedy short film

LOGLINE

After betraying his congressman, a political staffer is tasked with sabotaging a campaign fundraiser to showcase his new allegiance.

The project will be shooting in the Greater Toronto Area from January 14th-16th, 2022. Low budget. Non-Union. Actors will be paid a honorarium. Food and cost of transportation will be covered.

PATRICK

Late twenties/early thirties. Open ethnicity. Works as the campaign's media director. He's cunning, quick witted, and impulsive. He's always looking for the next best opportunity, sometimes leaping before he's had the chance to look.

GWEN

Forties. Open ethnicity. The congressman's chief of staff and campaign manager. She's sharp, capable, loyal, driven and she expects others to be the same. She is focused on doing one job well as opposed to jumping at any hot new opportunity.
