

HISTORY

The Admiralty offers truly unique function settings, with three decks based on HMS Victory, it's a stunning place to celebrate special occasions - with a wealth of rooms to discover. Our skilled team of chefs can prepare a fantastic range of food for any occasion, from tasty finger-food to a full sit-down dinner.

As you'd expect from a great Fuller's pub like the Admiralty, you definitely don't need to worry about the drinks: whether your guests prefer corks popped or pints pulled, we provide great value, high quality beer, wine and champagne. Certainly no taste buds will be left untapped!

ADMIRALS CABIN

This private dining room is the most exclusive area of the pub. The room will offer seating for 16-18 guests, together with full AV facilities, music system, private bathroom, crystal glassware and table service. It's perfect for an exclusive dining experience or holding board meetings. The Admiral's Cabin is an opulent and adaptable private dining facility - the ideal place to wow your guests.

THE GUN DECK

This bar has lots of possibilities; secluded private booths can be requested for dinner and drinks, or exclusive use of the downstairs bar with a private entrance for large events such as dinner parties, birthday celebrations or company galas. A live music license and microphone / PA system is also available on request. Prior booking is available for defined areas to accommodate groups as small as 4 up to 120+ guests.

THE QUARTER DECK

This is the mezzanine area – lightly themed on the officer's quarter deck of a ship with an impressive sweeping staircase leading to the floor below. It will be “decked” out for dining, offering fine views over both the pub and Trafalgar Square. A great place for dinner and smaller, more intimate celebrations with bar facilities, table service and mini bar set-up (on request).
