THE HORNIMAN AT HAY'S

Occupying a fantastic position opposite HMS Belfast and a short walk from London Bridge station. With two fantastic areas here at The Horniman we have the perfect space for your function. Our mezzanine area is great for drinks parties and receptions as well as large table bookings, with our downstairs Wharfside Bar being great for private events having not only exclusive bar use but a private entrance available for use too.

This area along the south bank of the Thames was historically known as the 'Larder of London'. The pub is on the site of the tea warehouse owned by Frederick Horniman, a famous tea dealer, and Hay's Wharf was the largest and oldest wharf in the Port of London.

❧ DID YOU KNOW? ❧

THE OLD THAMESIDE INN

History oozes from the great beams and ancient brickwork of the Old Thameside Inn, once an old spice warehouse. Behind our pub are the remains of Winchester Palace, which once belonged to Cardinal Wolsey.

The Old Thameside Inn is within a short stroll of London Bridge station and situated next to a full scale replica of the ship the Golden Hind!

We have two great spaces available for hire. You can choose our large cellar bar, perfect for large get-togethers, events or meetings – which comes complete with an exclusive bar. Or if you prefer something al fresco then choose our fantastic terrace on the banks of the river, which you can book exclusively too.

~ DID YOU KNOW? ~

DOGETT'S COAT & BADGE

Here at Doggett's we have a choice of three private rooms which can accommodate a wide range of events: everything from business meetings, drinks receptions, reunions and even weddings! We also proudly boast a fantastic garden terrace with a truly magnificent view of the River Thames, perfect for summer parties and BBQs.

For almost 300 years, there has been an amateur rowing race on the Thames, from London Bridge to Chelsea. Originally organised by Thomas Doggett, the winner was awarded a coat and badge, hence the historic origin of our name.

DID YOU KNOW?

We're famous for honouring the prize of a 300-year-old boat race.

THE WILLIAMSON'S TAVERN

---

A hidden gem of a pub with tremendous character and charm, situated within a courtyard and within walking distance of St Pauls.

We are able to host a range of events here at the Williamson's Tavern. Our private downstairs room comes with an exclusive bar, making the space perfect for any event or meeting. With our larger upstairs area, again with a private bar, fantastic for bigger events and parties. At weekends you can also hire the entire pub for exclusive use.

Said to hold the oldest excise licence in the City, our original tavern has a distinguished history. We were originally a residence for the Lord Mayors of London, and William III and Mary dined here. The original pub dates to the 17th Century, not long after the Great Fire of London and we were rebuilt in the 1930s our 'new' interior reflects the style of that period.

THE WALRUS & THE CARPENTER

We can cater for a range of events and functions. We offer the choice of a bright upstairs dining room, which can be set up to suit your event, or a very private cellar bar, perfect for private parties and meetings. Private hire of the pub is also available at weekends – a great venue for a wedding reception!

The Walrus & The Carpenter takes its name from a poem by Lewis Carroll.

The verse is recited by Tweedledum and Tweedledee in 'Through The Looking Glass'. We stand in the shadow of history, in view of the Monument to commemorate the Great Fire of London. The column's height marks the distance to the site of Thomas Farynor's bakery in Pudding Lane, where the fire began.

DID YOU KNOW?

THE WOODIN'S SHADES

Here at the Woodin's Shades we have an upstairs dining room with a bar, creating a fantastic private space for your get-together. The room is large enough to accommodate 120 guests for a drinks reception or 60 guests for a seated event.

For many years, the Woodin's Shades has been a favourite meeting place for the traders of Petticoat Lane and Spitalfields Markets. Petticoat Lane market is a historic Sunday street market, but in the Middle Ages, it was a tree-lined country road called Hog's Lane, possibly because pigs were kept in nearby fields.

~ DID YOU KNOW? ~

We're famous for serving traders from Spitalfields and Petticoat Lane markets

THE KING'S HEAD

In the heart of Mayfair surrounded by luxury fashion houses you will find our beautiful pub with a bright upstairs dining area perfect for any occasion. We also have a fantastic private cellar bar, the perfect space for parties and celebrations as well as business meetings.

Having a long and distinguished history, The King's Head stands on land formerly owned by the Duke of Albemarle. It has undergone several name changes since 1710 but is now back with its original name thought to be credited to King Charles II. Some, however, believe it is named after King George II, so we depicted both on our pub's sign.

❧ DID YOU KNOW? ❧

We're famous for being linked to two kings, Charles II and George II
