Rode Hoed

KEIZERSGRACHT 102, AMSTERDAM

The building dates back to the 17th century when it served as a clandestine church hidden behind the façades of three old stately canal houses. The magnificent Oosterhuiszaal, together with 5 atmospheric rooms, makes Rode Hoed perfect for conferences with breakout sessions, corporate events and gala nights. The ambiance of an old church combined with authentic interior elements and modern appliances will make your event extra special.
