Wallacespace is the perfect blank canvas for classes, team building, workshops & away days.

We have been helping people run innovative and inspiring team events for many years. We understand how to avoid potential pitfalls and will help you plan the details to ensure a successful day.

Our flexible, hands-on attitude means we can change the layout of your room mid-way through the day (at no extra charge), store materials for you in advance of your session (and return them to your office after the event) and deal with last minute requests with no fuss. For us at wallacespace it's about making sure you get the most out of your day.

Treat your team to a wellness day, build social capital with team-building activities or find the perfect spaces for classes & workshops.

You'll have a dedicated client manager who will work with you to ensure your event runs like clockwork, no matter how complex your brief.

We can host group of up to 250 people across our five beautiful buildings in Central London.
