Company Outing/Team Building

Would you like to do something different for the company outing this time? Or would you like to wrap up the meeting with a relaxing activity? Then People is the right place for you. In collaboration with Flitz events, we can make it an unforgettable day. Together with you, we will create a fun programme. Some of the things we can arrange:

Power kiting

Power kiting is THE challenge for anyone who loves beach and wind. You will learn how to use the special kites in a safe way and, of course, how to do loads of fun tricks! Nasawings and mattresses of all kinds and sizes are used. The small kites are for people who want to relax. The larger kites are for people who like the extreme and want to experience the power of the wind. Once you know how to control the power kite, we can try and jump! Play certain games to test how good your technique is. Who takes the biggest jump?

Beach volleyball

Beach volleyball is one of the best-known beach activities and very suitable as a team building activity. Who doesn't love feeling the sand between their toes while playing a nice game of volleyball with their colleagues? Thinking of a completely organised beach volleyball tournament with your colleagues? That's possible. Beach volleyball is a game where the aim is to get the ball to touch the ground within the lines of the opponent. Beach volleyball is accessible to everyone and definitely an activity that many people enjoy.

Expedition Robinson

Expedition Robinson, the unique challenge. You imagine you're in a place where survival and competition are crucial. It's the ultimate game of survival on the North Sea, in which the central aspects are team building and spirit. We divide into teams, and the game with its different tests can begin! Are you brave enough to take the challenge?

The parts of Expedition Robinson are: Team Flag, Construction Quist (XXL Jenga) Shoot the Cannibal (building XXL Catapults), water challenge (water casting race, you will not get wet), puzzle + mind quits (XXL tangram, tower of Hanoi, Babylon puzzle, coconut tower), mind your step (Obstacle course with obstacles like balance beam, making a primitive fire), liana tugging, award ceremony with a cup. All of the mentioned components will take place.

Beach hexathlon

Are you looking for a competitive and spectacular outing for your colleagues or personnel that takes you back to the times of the well-known Battle of the Network Stars? Then look no further. A competition with 8 people per team will be organised, consisting of 6 components of your choice, in which you will face different teams. A team can only win if they work well together, fully go for it, and use the right tactics. The team that consistently works together the best, communicates, and decides on the best strategy will win the most points and take home the Master Cup at the end of the hexathlon. Which team wins and can call themselves the winner for a whole year? A fun outing for groups or family days. In the afternoon you will battle it out on the beach and at night you wrap up with a nice BBQ. We offer a large variety of games, and we can easily adapt the hexathlon to the weather, surroundings, or target group.
