Glandore MEETING ROOMS

Our meeting rooms combine the elegance and style of Georgian Dublin with modern, high-tech meeting, conference and boardrooms. With ten beautifully appointed rooms, each with natural daylight and a choice of either modern finishes or original Georgian period features, our clients can choose the ideal room for their specific event needs.

We also offer Nespresso coffee, luxury teas and access to our onsite restaurant, Suesey Street, perfect for breakout lunches, dinners, meetings & networking events. Our dedicated team will ensure that all your requirements are met efficiently and your event runs smoothly on the day.

A man and a woman are seated at a small, round wooden table in a modern, dimly lit interior. The man, on the left, is balding and wearing a dark suit jacket over a light-colored shirt. He is gesturing with his hands as he speaks. The woman, on the right, has dark hair pulled back and is wearing a light pink blouse and grey trousers. She is listening attentively, with her hands clasped. The background is a dark, textured wall with a single circular light fixture visible at the top. The overall atmosphere is professional and focused.
