LOCATION

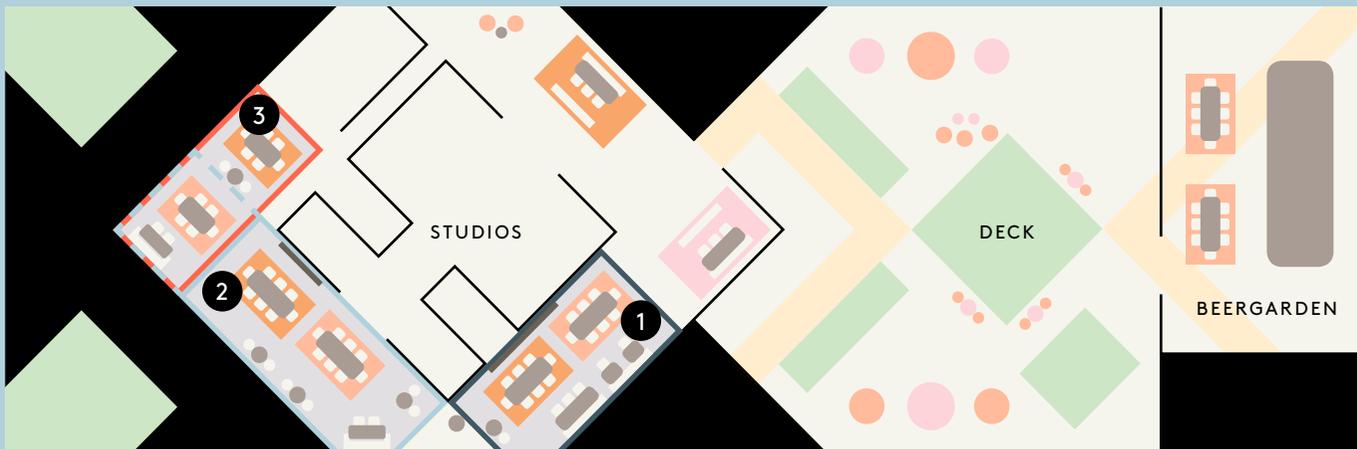

With its bold presence in Amsterdam's A'DAM Toren, Sir Adam resonates with the vibrant energy of the building's present occupants, including MassiveMusic, ID&T and Gibson. Built in 1971 to house the office of Royal Dutch Shell, it reopened in 2016 to become one of Amsterdam's most creative and entertaining destinations. It's just behind the city's Central Station and overlooking the IJ-river. Make sure to check out the rooftop, called the Lookout, for 360 views of the city as well as our two-delicious culinary neighbors, Moon and Ma'dam.

ROOMS

Rooms at Sir Adam are designed and furnished with more than sleep in mind. Though, when it's time to place head to pillow—whether just after dusk or well after dawn—you'll be doing so on crispy 300-thread count linens on a pillow from our Sir pillow menu. When it's time to face the day (or night), an Illy espresso maker at a palatable distance from your very comfortable bed will have you up and at 'em. From there, perhaps a quick refresh in your oversized rain shower with Dead Clean toiletries. And, when it's time to kick back (and even entertain friends new and old) a designed minibar full of greatest hits, a turntable with an eclectic selection of vinyl records, and even a Gibson guitar are all at your fingertips.

EAT & DRINK

In the foyer, you'll find cookies, sweets, healthy bars, nibbles and a fridge filled with drinks. When it's time to eat, we can hook you up with a menu from THE BUTCHER Social Club. Our in-house destination for those four important "Bs" (burger, booze, beer, breakfast).

EQUIPMENT

The Studios are packed with all the essentials you need, like a flat screen television and beamers. Just connect your mobile device, MacBook or iPad to the system for a presentation or video conference.
