

THE ROUND ROOM

BY REMY & VEENHUIZEN

The Circle of Life was never planned to feature all kinds of rounds objects, it just happened. Just like it just happened to Remy & Veenhuizen. Ever since the beginning of their career they declared the world their toolkit. They started designing a space for Capital C and everything found its way into the design by accident. It began with their Tube Table: a round table constructed by - what's in a name - cardboard tubes. Its round shape forms the basis of the overall design.

As you might expect, everything in this room is round. From the design lamp above the table, to the accents on the wall. The round table ensures that no one feels cornered. The perfect place for balanced meetings. Rightly so.
