BARRACA RODIZIO GRILL & BAR

Virtual tour

BEM-VINDO A BARRACA

At BARRACA Rodizio Grill & Bar, you can enjoy a unique Brazilian concept with a distinctive style of service. Various passadores continuously walk around with large skewers, cutting delicious pieces of meat or fish at the table upon request. The Fresh Market Table offers the finest fresh starters and side dishes, allowing everyone to experience the exceptional Brazilian cuisine.

The restaurant has a bold and warm character. Renowned Amsterdam architect Ronald Hooft used natural materials such as wood and leather, along with industrial elements like concrete and steel. The restaurant is housed in the over 150-year-old barn of the Mentzhoeve (1858). The barn retains its authentic atmosphere thanks to its wooden roof with supporting beams. At the cocktail bar, which overlooks the grill, and around the buffet, colorful Portuguese tiles have been incorporated.

Would you like to experience the Barraca concept as part of an event? Inquire about the possibilities.
