about oldbillingsgate

In the heart of the City on the North bank of the River Thames, stands a striking historic building that is a remarkable part of London's heritage. Old Billingsgate encompasses three versatile spaces and a beautiful terrace with unrivalled views of Tower Bridge, City Hall, The Shard and London Bridge.

This Victorian Grade II listed building was once a world-famous fish market, running up until 1982. The Grand Hall, which now holds varying events from exhibitions to awards dinners, was the market floor, and the basement of Old Billingsgate, now The Vault, was covered in 50 years of ice used to store the fishermen's catch. Given an industrial twist by architect Lord Richard Rogers, the building has undergone an amazing transformation, from the 19th century's largest fish market to London's premier event space.

The three unique spaces; The Grand Hall, The Vault and The Gallery, are available to hire separately or in conjunction with each other so there is plenty of room for your event to grow. As a blank canvas space, the opportunities are endless!

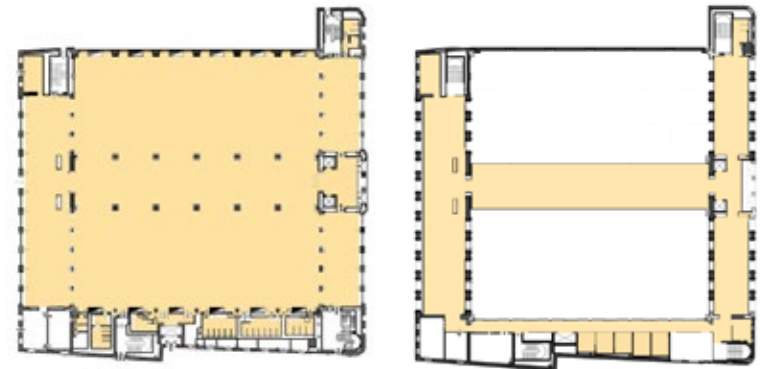

The Grand Hall

and First Floor Mezzanine

The Grand Hall is Old Billingsgate's largest space, boasting a stunning triple-height ceiling and a feature mezzanine. The ornate sky-lit ceiling, together with The Grand Hall's magnificent proportions guarantee an inspiring first impression that guests will not forget.

The Grand Hall comfortably seats 1,200 for a dinner dance or can effortlessly accommodate a standing reception for 2,500 guests. The Terrace makes for an unforgettable entrance with fantastic views. It provides an ideal setting for summer drinks receptions and is the perfect backdrop for photo and filming opportunities.

The Vault

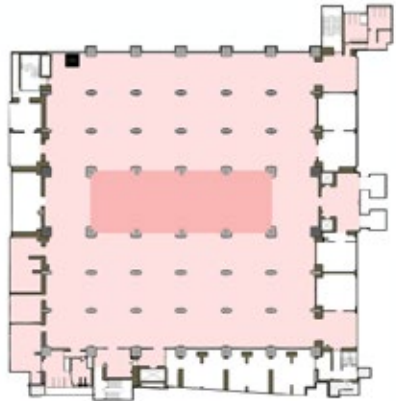

and The Well

The Vault is Old Billingsgate's hidden gem. Concealed beneath the banks of the Thames, The Vault once housed the icy cold store below Billingsgate Fish Market.

Its exposed brickwork and vaulted ceilings create a unique atmosphere that is in great contrast with The Grand Hall. The Vault's Victorian architecture has been enhanced with an adaptable lighting, sound and AV design to offer a cool and contemporary event space. It's ideal for distinctive sit-down dinners, parties, conferences and it makes for an exceptional filming location.

Concealed in the centre of The Vault is The Well, a contained space with high ceilings. It's the perfect place to party!
