Welcome to Lindley Hall

Based on a quiet leafy square in the heart of Westminster, Lindley Hall has been hosting a variety of events since it first opened in 1904. Originally built to host botanic art exhibitions it now entertains the most prestigious events from dinners to fashion shows, product launches to exams, exhibitions to conferences - Lindley Hall has accommodated them all.

A beautiful glass-vaulted ceiling lets an abundance of natural light into this blank canvas venue and, together with our capacity to rig from the ceiling, clients can use every inch of space Lindley Hall offers.

Exclusivity is key and our carefully selected range of trusted suppliers for catering, production and theming are an integral part of our event success.

We look forward to working with you on your next event!

Meetings and conferences

With its central London location, Lindley Hall is the perfect space for companies to inspire, motivate and network, hosting up to 480 delegates. The flexible space allows organisers to host 280 people cabaret style with a reception space, or 480 theatre style with space for networking and exhibition stands if required.

In-house equipment includes an intelligent lighting system for washing with brand colours, pin spots, uplighters and a PA system for announcements and background music. Free Wi-Fi is also included with 200mbps. The Halls have hosted conferences for some of the world's biggest brands including Barclays, The White Company and Costa Coffee as well as high security events such as President Barack Obama speaking at a town hall style meeting.

Exhibitions

Lindley Hall provides an expansive and versatile space for your exhibition. With a total area of 875 square metres, Lindley Hall is the ideal venue for world-class exhibitions.

With an abundance of natural light flooding in through the high glass vaulted ceiling and bouncing off the white walls, the hall is a perfect blank canvas for your brand.

With space to accommodate up to 160 shell scheme stands or 145 trestle tables, Lindley Hall provides an adaptable backdrop for exhibitions allowing you to tailor the space to meet your event requirements.

The hall features a large three-tonne goods lift, which accesses both street and hall level, allowing for simple load in and load out for your exhibitors and suppliers.

Dinners and awards

A magnificent venue in the heart of Westminster, Lindley Hall provides the perfect backdrop for an evening of extraordinary dining. Whether you are planning to hold a gala dinner party, grand banquet or awards night, Lindley Hall is a venue that you can transform as you wish to accomplish your event visualisation.

Boasting capacity for 450 guests, with areas for a bar, dance floor, VIPs or press, Lindley Hall is a multipurpose private dining venue that offers endless possibilities.

For every event that we host, we work with a selection of London's finest caterers, production florists and entertainment companies.

Late licences are also available - please enquire for further details.

Receptions and product launches

As one of London's largest uninterrupted floor spaces, Lindley Hall is designed to provide a perfect blank canvas for your reception, without compromising on its unique period features. With room to accommodate 650 standing guests, the space can be customised for example to include cars, street food stalls and tasting tables as well as performers, such as roaming musicians and aerial artists to add colour and vibrancy to your event.

There are many opportunities to brand both inside and outside the hall as well as covering the floor with carpet or vinyl to really make your event stand out. The hall has attracted the crème de la crème of car launches over time, with Lamborghini launching the Urus following Renault's F1 Car Launch and Maserati's Levante.

Late licences are also available – please enquire for further details.

Wine tastings

Our stunning glass-vaulted ceiling lets in a wealth of natural light making the hall a perfect venue for wine tastings.

Lindley Hall has a long tradition of hosting wine events, with the first being The Festival of Wine in 1951. Organisers love the light and tranquillity of the space so the wines can do the talking! With a capacity of up to 140 tables - trestle tables and chairs are available in-house free of charge.

The hall also features a large three-tonne goods lift, which accesses both street and hall level.

There are endless possibilities for wine companies to brand the venue to really make it their own; including hanging banners around the walls, from the ceiling and outside the venue, as well as covering floors, doors and walls with branded vinyl.

Fashion shows

A versatile fashion show venue in the heart of London, Lindley Hall provides a spectacular backdrop for your latest collection.

The infrastructure below the 14-metre-high, glass-vaulted ceiling allows for a high capacity of rigging, so clients can use every square inch of space the hall offers.

Fashion houses and designers such as Alexander McQueen, Anya Hindmarch, Tom Ford and Richard Quinn have showcased their collections at the Halls, creating high-fashion moments that artistically display their creativity and expertise in a beautiful setting.

Lindley Hall can feature a full-size catwalk, as well as up to 500 seated guests; and is equipped with a back of house area ideal for hair and make-up or for backstage and press use.

Exams

Lindley Hall at Royal Horticultural Halls has held exams since 1906 and is the London venue of choice for external school or university examinations.

Lindley Hall boasts a stunning period setting that sets the scene for education and can accommodate up to 450 desks. For each examination, we will provide you with specialist exam desks, chairs, clocks, Wi-Fi and a separate invigilator area. Security is offered should you need it, as well as a cloakroom, PA system and secure room for storing exam papers.

Fixed electrics charge

Depending on the type of event you are hosting with the Royal Horticultural Halls, there is a fixed electrics installation fee.

Ahead of your event, a floorplan will be shared with you where your suppliers can mark where they need their electrics.

All electrical points much be requested prior to your event day, within the hall and the basement kitchen.

We suggest that you estimate between £1,000 - £3,000 + VAT for your electrics charge.

Venue staff

Included in hire:

During your venue hire, there will be a duty manager, a lift operator and one cloak room attendant included within your venue hire fee.

A general pre and post clean will also take place, along with one dedicated cleaner provided for the duration of tenancy.

Additional cleaning staff required are charged at £18 per hour (Mon – Fri) and £19 per hour (Sat & Sun) (min 5 hrs).

Not included in hire:

Security is mandatory for any events where alcohol is served, the cost of this is £22 + VAT per hour per guard (min of 6 hour charge). We require one guard per 100 guests. Security services need to be on site one hour before the start time of the event and remain one hour after the finish.

First aid provision and queue management may be required and will need to be pre-arranged with the operations team.

Additional cloakroom staff can be booked at an additional cost of £22 + VAT per hour per cloakroom attendant (min of 6 hour charge).

Structural Engineers Report – these are charged at £300 + VAT and are required for all stands over 4m high, double deckers, stairs, 600mm-high platforms and features that require cross-bracing, as well as any rigging hung from the fabric of the building. Weight loadings onto the floor also require full structural calculations.

Venue suppliers

Our venue is sold as a dry-hire space. Suppliers must be sourced from our approved suppliers list, for both production and catering.

The full list is available on our website: Click here to see the list

Other suppliers are subject to venue written approval.

If our suppliers cannot provide the service or cuisine you are looking for:

Catering: We would request a £1,000 + VAT refundable catering deposit via your chosen caterer, to ensure our kitchen facilities are handed back in the same condition plus a buyout / admin fee of £3,500 + VAT. We do not charge a corkage fee, however your chosen caterer may.

Production: For large production events, an administration fee of 10% of the client's final bill will be charged. For more basic AV for meetings and conferences, a £500 + VAT fee will be charged.

Please check with your event planner if you are unsure of amount payable.

Additional information

Wi-Fi:

WI-FI is available for use throughout at 200MB download and 200MB upload speed.

Sound:

The maximum sound level is 95 decibels. As a venue, we are located in a residential area and need to be mindful of loud music/sound. The Operations Team will monitor noise for all events at boundary level and reserve the right to inform the client if the noise level needs to be reduced.

Should the Duty Manager on site deem the noise level too high, the client must comply and reduce sound to a level the Duty Manager deems suitable. Please note, the Duty Managers decision is final on this matter.

Additional Hours:

Load-in and load-out can only happen between 7:00am – 11:00pm (Mon – Sat), and 8:00am – 10:00pm (Sunday). Due to noise restrictions, no load-in or out can happen outside of these hours.

If you require additional hours for rig/de-rig then overnight 'silent hours' can be purchased at £750 + VAT per hour.

If you wish to extend your event hours, a Temporary Event Notice can be bought for £1,000 + VAT per hour (2am at the latest).
