Bar Tab on Consumption

A bar tab can be set at the beginning of your function with a specified limit or amount in mind that you feel comfortable with spending. This can be reviewed as your function progresses and increased if need be, however we will always ensure you are in full control of the amount throughout the event. At any point you are welcome to turn the bar tab into a cash bar so your guests can purchase their own drinks.

Terms and Conditions

Confirmation of Booking / Deposit

A deposit equal to the venue hire fee, or 20% of the minimum spend (if applicable), is required to confirm your function booking. If the deposit and booking form are not received, The George has the right to cancel the booking and to allocate the space to another client. Payment of the deposit is your acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.

Confirmation of final details

It is advised to confirm final food and beverage choices for your function 7 days prior to the day of the function. Final numbers must be confirmed 72 hours prior to your function. Clients will be required to pay any pre-ordered food and beverage balances upon confirmation of final numbers.

Please note; although all care is taken to keep amendments to food and beverage to a minimum, items are subject to change without prior notice due to ordering and supplier/market restrictions.

Cancellation

The client has the right to cancel their function at any time. However, any pre payments for hire fees or pre-ordered food and beverage may be forfeited by the client dependent upon the notice period given. This will be at the discretion of the function manager and will be clarified at the time of booking.

Payment

All function accounts must be paid in full by the completion of the function. Personal and company cheques will only be accepted with prior approval and funds must clear 3 days prior to the date of the function. Any outstanding balance will be charged to the credit card provided on the authorisation form. In line with the above, we do not allow function clients to become debtors/pay post event unless arranged with the functions manager prior to the event.

Credit card authorisation

The credit card authorisation details are to be required to secure every function, even if this will not be used as the payment method. Any outstanding balance remaining post event will be charged to the credit card in line with payment conditions.

Venue Hire / Minimum Spends

Venue hire or minimum spend options are inclusive of set-up and background music. Management reserves the right to request a bond payable prior to your event for any damages that may be incurred; the cost of any repairs will then be deducted from this bond.

The George reserves the right to apply minimum spends where an area is specifically allocated for a function. The amount will be outlined in the confirmation letter if applies. Minimum spend requirements must be met before conclusion of the event and are in addition to room hire charges. If the minimum spend is not met, the difference will be charged as venue hire.

Administration Fee

A 10% on charge is applicable on all hire equipment or services organised by our function team and will be included in any prices quoted.

Change of Event space

In the event of unforeseen circumstances or any alteration to numbers, The George reserves the right to change the allocated area to another suitable area. Every effort will be made to discuss the change with the Organizer well in advance.

Consumption of External Food and Beverage

No food or beverage of any kind will be permitted to be brought into the venue by the client or any other person attending the function unless by prior arrangement with The George.

Equipment, Decorations and Entertainment

To personalise your function or for a unique atmosphere we are more than happy for the organiser to arrange special equipment, decorations or entertainment upon approval from the functions manager. For all functions including hens or bucks nights there is to be no inappropriate paraphernalia. All personal belongings are asked to be collected at the conclusion of your event. Unfortunately, there are not facilities for storage of these items on premise. The George is not responsible for any items that are lost, stolen or damaged.

Deliveries

All deliveries to the venue must be approved by the Function Manager and be clearly marked with the date and name of the function. Suppliers are responsible for delivery and pick up within the venue guidelines.

PLEASE NOTE: The venue does not have access to a loading bay. Any parking fees incurred at the time of loading and unloading are the responsibility of the client.

Price Variation

Every endeavour is made to maintain our prices as originally quoted; however, they are subject to change. Should any increase occur, we will notify you immediately.

Access to venue

The client may be allowed access to the venue prior the commencement time as agreed upon with the functions manager. This includes DJs, musicians, event organisers and suppliers. The George must be notified at least 48 hours prior to the function regarding times of arrival, equipment and areas that need to be accessed.

Additional Meals

For third parties employed as entertainers including photographers & video projectionist's meals are provided at normal George menu prices unless arranged prior to the event with the manager.

Extras

Any extras, such as beverages on consumption are to be paid upon the completion of the function.

Signage

Nothing is to be nailed, screwed, stapled or adhered to any wall, door or other surface or part of the building. Signage in The George's public areas must be kept to a minimum and must be approved by the Event Manager prior to the event.

Security

The client is responsible for conducting their function in an orderly manner and in full compliance with all applicable laws. The George reserves the right to intervene or eject any guests from the function if their actions are considered illegal, noisy or offensive. A security charge of $55 per hour applies to functions where it is deemed required in line with The George policies.

Dress Code

The George has a dress code so we recommend you consider this when deciding on a suitable venue for your event. We also suggest you include the dress code on invitations to the event when booking The George. No singlets, work boots, or thongs are allowed.

I.D Checks

The George is a fully licensed venue therefore photo ID is required at all times, the only accepted forms of ID are: Passport, WA Driver's License, WA Proof of Age Card. Management has the right to refuse entry to any person at their discretion.

Responsible Service of Alcohol

All of our staff are trained in responsible service of alcohol in accordance with current government legislation; therefore, they have the right to refuse service of alcohol to any one, at any time with no refund given. Management also reserve the right to stop/cancel a function at any time due to anti-social behaviour, intoxication or disorderly conduct by guests. Due to our commitment on the responsible service of alcohol we are not able to offer discounted or 'happy hour' drinks.

Minors

Minors are welcome to attend private functions providing a legal guardian is with them at all times and they do not order or consume alcohol.

Client Responsibility

- You assume full responsibility of the conduct of your guests and invitees, and you must ensure The George's other guests and visitors are not disturbed by your function, guests or invitees.
- The client is financially responsible for any damage that is sustained to the venue or any other property owned by or in the care of custody of The George, which is caused by the client or any other person attending the function.
- General and normal cleaning is included in the cost of the event; however additional charges may be payable if the event has created cleaning needs above and beyond normal cleaning.
- The George does not accept responsibility for damage or loss of goods left on the premises prior to, during or after your event.

It is the responsibility of you, the Organiser, to inform all guests of The George's Terms and Conditions.
