General information

Can we supply our own caterer or bring our own food?

In order for Henry Summer to fully comply with state food preparation and liquor laws, all food and beverages must be provided by our venue. The only exception to this rule is celebratory cakes.

- $50 for cocktail events - cakes will be cut and served on boards with napkins for your guests.
- $4 per person for seated events - cakes will be cut and served on individual plates.

What are the restrictions regarding decorations at Henry Summer?

Flowers, decorations and lighting are all welcome at Henry Summer for your event. However, the responsibility for delivery, set-up and timely removal of these items is that of the contract signer, not of the Henry Summer team. All items must be removed from the premises at the end of the event unless other arrangements have been made with our Functions and Events Manager. The use of nails, pins, staples, Glue tack, and tape adhesives are not permitted. Should you need to place signage on the walls, please contact our Functions and Events Manager for a list of approved materials.

please note that Glitter, rice, and other small confetti style items are not permitted at Henry Summer. This includes balloons containing confetti and glitter stuck on the inside., confetti canons and party poppers.*

please note access to power is not available for casual bookings (all lights must be battery operated).*

please note that decoration items that require bump in/ set up are not permitted in casual spaces. This includes balloon garlands, external furniture hire (inc. arbours), and photo backdrops. it is the responsibility of the contract signer to ensure the space secured is suitable for their decoration needs. Please liaise with the Function and Events team should you have any queries.*

Can we have our own music?

Yes, whether you are hiring the whole venue or just one of our exclusive spaces, the music choice is yours. You can have a DJ or live performers or even bring in your own iPod and link it to our in-house system. All musical performers are responsible for bringing their own equipment. Please discuss with your coordinator before booking any live entertainment.

please be aware that BYO music and performers are not permitted in casual spaces.*

What if something is damaged during our event? Who is responsible?

As the function (or event) organiser, you are therefore liable for all costs, expenses, damage and loss resulting from any act caused by you, one of your guests, or external contractors hired as part of your event.

This is inclusive of any damage to the building, furniture, fixtures and fittings (including plants and electronic equipment) prior to, during and after the event.

Should damages occur, an invoice will be sent to your nominated email address. Once received, all payments must be received within 7 days.

What do we have to hire externally for private functions?

Items such as tables, chairs, microphones, and audio mixers can be supplied where available by our venue. We are also able to supply table linen and cloth napkins when required for an additional cost.

Additional items that may be necessary include:

- Projectors and screens,
- DJ and equipment (if applicable)
- Staging or additional lighting.

Henry Summer offers the service to coordinate the hire and set up of these items for you. Please ask our Functions and Events Manager should you require additional information or a quote for this service.

General information

How do I book my function at Henry Summer?

To secure your booking at Henry Summer, please complete and return a copy of the booking form to Sarah at functions@henrysummer.com.au.

In addition, a minimum spend deposit is required to secure both private and casual spaces. Dates cannot be held without a form and deposit in place. We do not accept tentative bookings.
