RED WINES BY THE BOTTLE

Australia and more specifically South Australia has adopted Shiraz as their own. South Australia is the largest wine producing state of Australia where the majority, of grape growing regions lie in warm areas and ideally suited to producing full-bodied Shiraz. So!! If big, rich and 'flavoursome' is your preference then look no further than regions such as the Barossa Valley, McLaren Vale or country Victoria for significant richness, intensity and power. The perfect partner for red meat.
