ABOUT

Located at North Quay, where local creatives, curious explorers and discerning business travellers come to work and play, Hotel Indigo Brisbane offers guests the opportunity to delve deep into the inner-Brisbane neighbourhood with easy access to central business hubs and plenty of places to explore.

At every turn, Hotel Indigo Brisbane features distinct design elements that reflect the local neighbourhood. Artwork including hand painted stencil butterflies symbolise bringing the outside in and line the hotel corridors, which continues the Hotel's authentic street art theme. The décor is locally sourced and influenced making this contemporary space feel like a hideaway.

ABOUT

IZAKAYA PUBLICO & BAR 1603

Step through the giant red doors and into a creative and inspired new world
- a modern take on the traditional Izakaya has arrived in Brisbane.

The Japanese word izakaya (居酒屋) is made up of three kanji, meaning “stay-drink-place.”
A spot to grab a drink, settle in, and get comfortable, which is exactly what Izakaya Publico and Bar 1603 is all about.

Izakaya Publico is Brisbane's new creative and inspired Japanese dining experience.
A hidden place waiting to be discovered.

Bar 1603 proudly offers the best of local and Japanese beer, wine, and of course, their calling card:
barrelled whisky and cocktail favourites with a sake twist that will transport patrons to Japan.
