In the heart of CAMBRIDGE,
in the city's oldest hotel, discover a vibrant,
contemporary venue for private events — grand in scale, but personal in the details.

TO EACH OCCASION, WE BRING THE
FLOURISH OF TRISTAN WELCH'S
MODERN BRITISH CUISINE — HIS WHIMSICAL
RE-INTERPRETATIONS OF FAMILIAR CLASSICS
AS MEMORABLE AS THE VENUE ITSELF.

THE BALLROOM

There are few halls in Cambridge that compare with the grandeur and charm of the University Arms Ballroom – a wood-panelled room that belongs to our city's heritage.

Natural light spills in through huge stained-glass windows decorated with college crests, with views looking out over the city's iconic Parker's Piece.

Summer or winter, the Ballroom is the perfect space for large events, accommodating up to 180 seated guests or 200 standing.

THE CRICK AND THE WATSON

For smaller occasions, the Ballroom can be divided with a solid oak partition to create two separate rooms: the Crick and the Watson. The sense of elegance without pomposity, of intimacy over corporate formality, is unusual for Cambridge. Each room is suitable for up to 70 and 96 seated guests.

PRIVATE DINING

Our fully bespoke private dining experiences is one of the most alluring draws of a University Arms event. Every menu is presided over by Cambridge's hottest culinary sensation — chef Tristan Welch who heads up the hotel restaurant, Parker's Tavern.

Menus feature the best of British cuisine, cooked with flair using the finest local produce.

ACCOMMODATION

The hotel comprises 189 rooms and suites — each one offering views of Parker's Piece, the hotel's inner courtyard or Cambridge's historic Regent Street.

Every room features superfast wi-fi, a smart television, soft-as-silk cotton sheets, air-conditioning, a walk-in shower or bath and heated bathroom floors.
