

EXPERIMENTAL Cocktail Club

CHINATOWN
LONDON

THE VENUE

*A gem tucked away in Chinatown,
where cocktails flow
well into the night
and music is a mash-up of live bands and DJs.*

WELCOME TO ECC CHINATOWN.

Tucked behind an unassuming door, the concept for Experimental Cocktail Club began in Paris in 2007. A few years later, the second iteration of the bar opened in London, taking inspiration from New York's iconic cocktail bars and a dose of Parisian charm.

Beyond the paint-chipped door, the bar flows over two levels, and inside, a new design beckons. Taking inspiration from Chinatown's legendary dragons and woven with touches of plush decadence, the bar is a sultry tribute to timeless classics, hidden gems and great music.
