What we do

A building with true history

Built in 1856 by Sancton Wood, The Columbia is made up of 5 Grade II listed French Renaissance townhouses. Overlooking one of London's greatest parks, our townhouses have seen many lives - from a park-side residence for opium dealers, merchants and generals, to a war-time Red Cross hospital run by Lady Randolph Churchill, a stint as an Air Force officers' club in the 60s and the hotel of choice for bands on the rise from the 80s to the early 00s. We're proud of our spirited past.

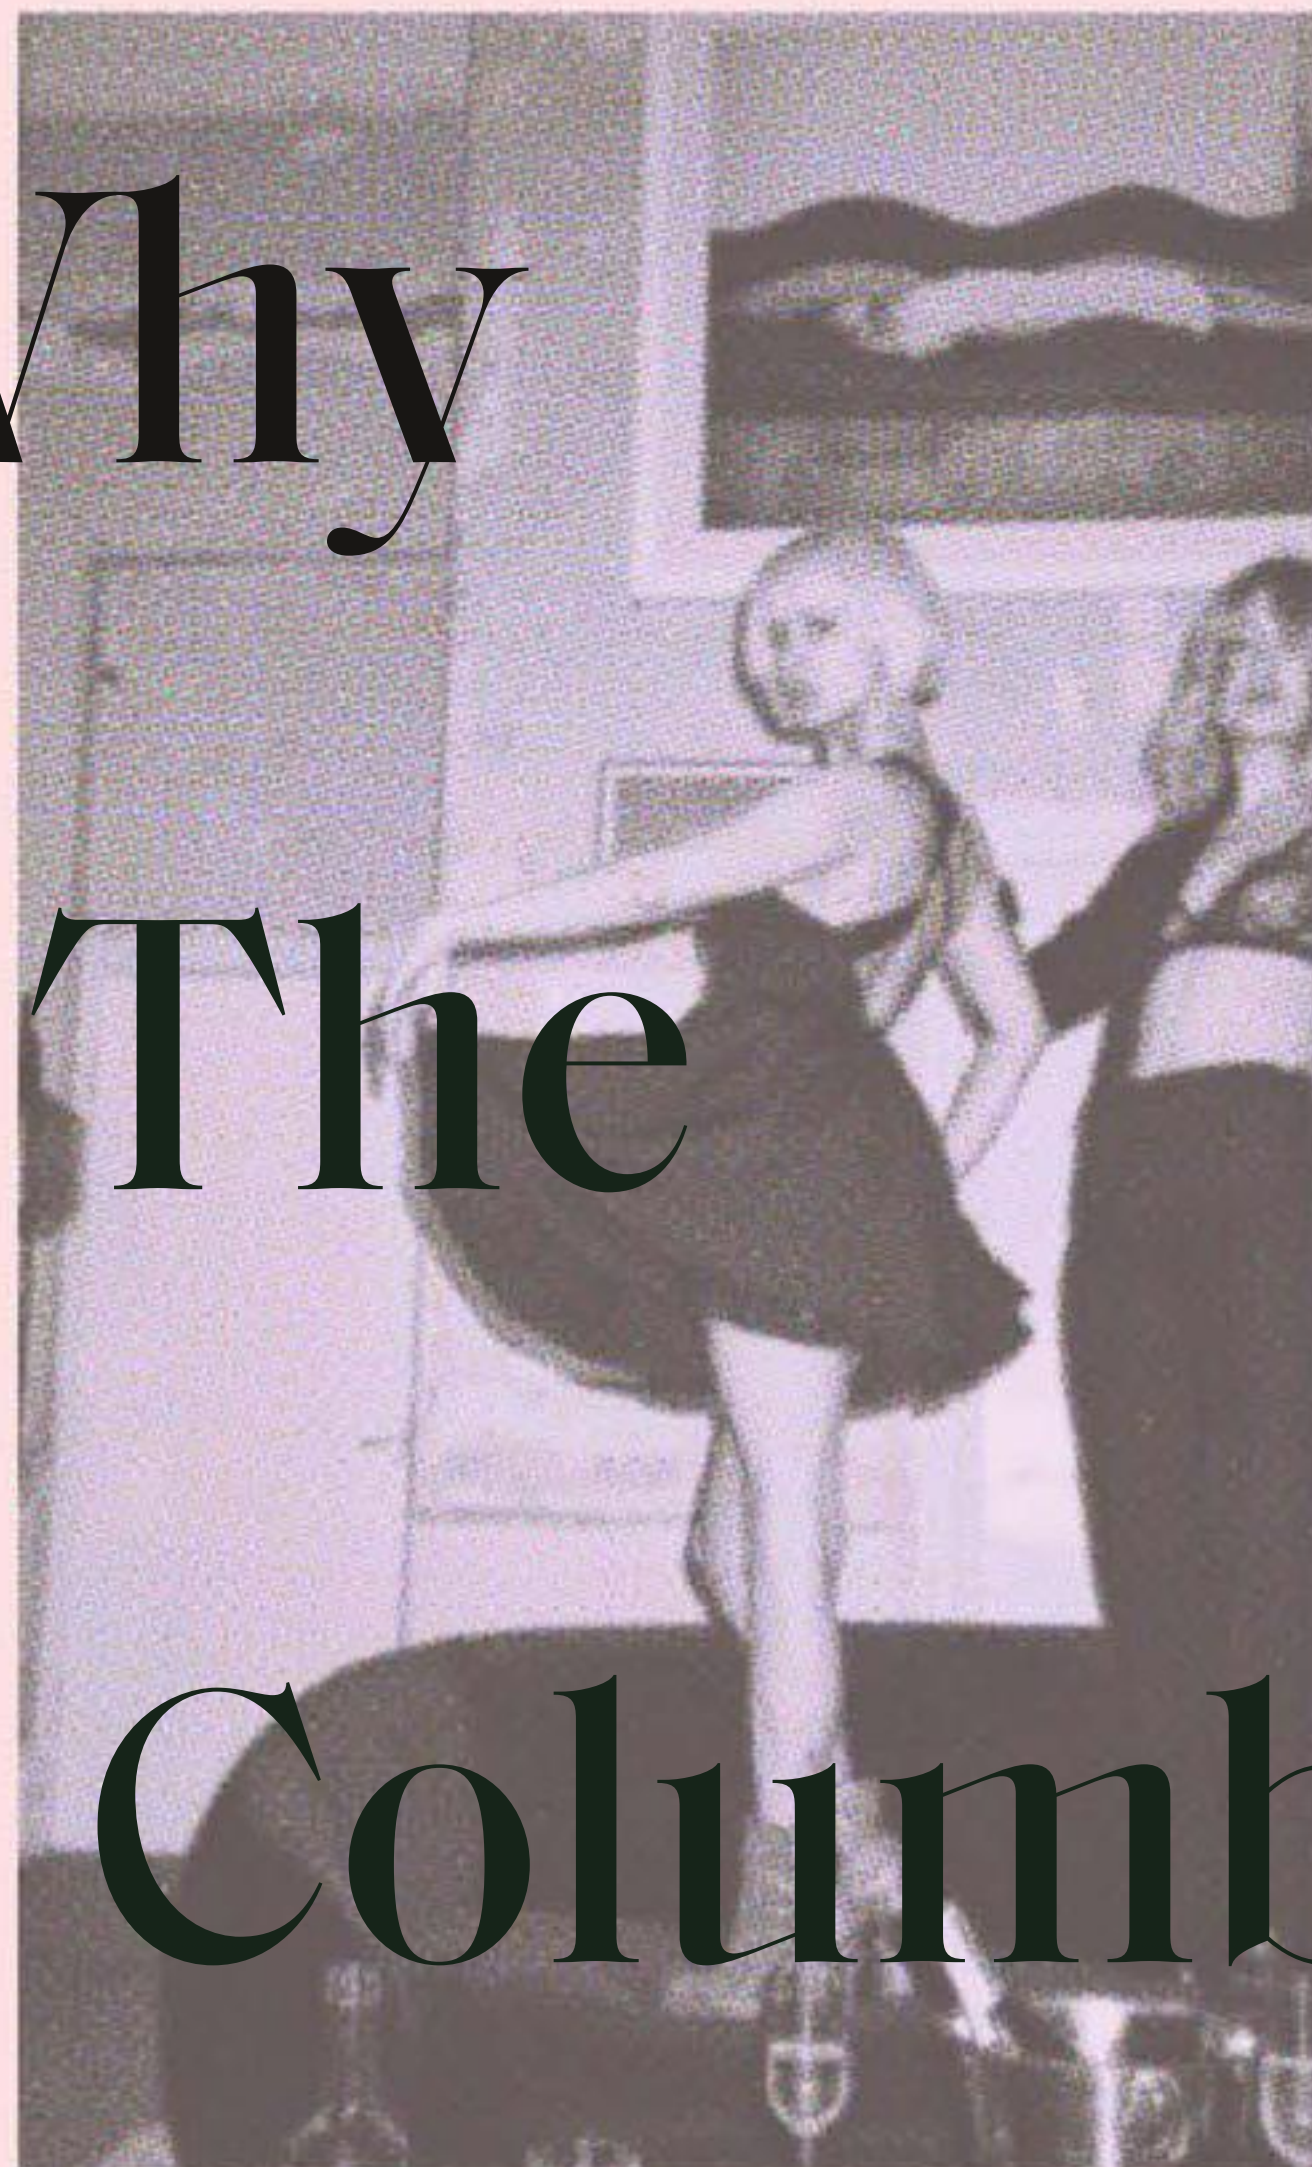

We've had the likes of Amy Winehouse, Lenny Kravitz, Stereophonics, Iggy Pop, Scissor Sisters, Slade, and Kings of Leon staying with us, with The Columbia becoming a home away from home for them whilst on the road. After living with us for 6 months, Oasis even decided to name their song 'Columbia' after many 'nights of nonsense' at the hotel.

Food & drink packages for any event

We can offer a number of food & drink packages for events at The Columbia, delivered by our experienced kitchen and bar team. For drinking events, our large pop-up bars can be set up in your space, with our team serving a tailored drinks menu of stirred cocktails, mixed drinks, wine, bubbles, and beers.

For food, our approach is relaxed and rustic. Our handcrafted grazing table, designed for standing events, is a consistent crowd favourite. Styled across farmhouse tables, it is served on a selection of large wooden boards and risers with foliage arrangements, vintage decorations and statement lighting.

We understand the importance of flexibility, so we also allow for external catering to be brought in and for use of our on-site kitchen, subject to final requirements.
