THE VENUE

Experience the essence of Melbourne without navigating your way through confusing back streets and alleyways. And if Melbourne's weather is living up to its reputation, fear not because The General Assembly caters to four seasons in a day.

Peruse the delicious menu which offers Melbourne's latest food trends, while you sample a huge range of drinks and listen to local acoustic artists. Don't leave without checking out the street art installations around the venue which mirror Melbourne's hidden laneways.

Positioned on South Wharf Promenade, neighbouring the Pan Pacific Hotel and Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre, The General Assembly is a 5 minute walk from Crown/Southbank precinct and provides easy access to DFO shopping centre.

CATERING

The General Assembly's function menus include a fantastic selection of items from a seasonally rotating pantry.

The cocktail menu offers a wide selection of items catering to a variety of tastes, along with substantial options.

For sit-down affairs we offer a generous "Feed Me" menu.

Drinks are available either as a convenient beverage package or on consumption through a bar tab.
