LONDON BRIDGE

Located in the heart of Southwark, just a stone's throw from London Bridge station, Belushi's offers versatile semi private and private spaces that have previously been used for corporate, occasion and sporting events. Since 1997, 161 Borough High Street has been a flagship venue for Beds and Bars'. A 2017 refurbishment by founder Keith Knowles brought a refreshed vision to life.

The main floor features a statement wrap around bar, private 'cage like' booths and a raised entertainment platform. Visitors enjoy quality cocktails, top rated food cultivated by Alex Coad, Beds and Bars' very own dedicated Head of Food, conveniently packaged into hearty portions bursting with flavour.

Guests enjoy multiple HD TV screens (positioned within eyesight from every seat) and a top of the range audio system (for an enhanced sports atmosphere), all complimented by a fresh rebrand.

SAMPLE THE DELIGHTS OF THE SLICE BAR

Deep inside the venue, within the teeming energy of the Belushi's main floor, a semi-private enclave awaits, offering a space for those seeking an area slightly separated from the bustling atmosphere. Often used for birthdays, anniversaries, engagement celebrations and corporate do's, guests at 'The Slice Bar' indulge in the visual and aromatic spectacle of their pizzas being expertly crafted by the Belushi's talented team in the open pizza oven.
