- Any reasonable wear and tear is accepted as part of the running of our Private Dining Room. However, any damages caused as a result of unreasonable behaviour and the like will result in all associated repair costs being passed to the party/party organiser. The Badger & Co management team reserves the right to determine the specifics of any behaviour that may have resulted in damage to the Private Dining Room.

- We do not permit the use of glitter/ confetti whilst decorating the private dining room- the use of which may incur a cleaning charge added to your bill at the end of your booking.
- Hens, Stags and celebrations
Thank you for thinking of us for your celebration. We love a party as much as the next bunch but we do have a few restrictions that we want to make you aware of. Here at Badger we believe less is more and like any grand Toad Hall, we keep things classy! If you would like to bring any decoration to theme your celebration that's fine; bring it with you and take it away when you leave, but it's a hard no to confetti and anything inappropriate or that you wouldn't put in front of your granny – you know what we're talking about...
We do not permit the booking of strippers or anything of that nature as we are a family friendly venue.
- E-cigarettes are not permitted in the building, including the private dining room. Guests are welcome to exit the private dining room at any time onto Castle Street in order to smoke!
- In terms of the bill on the night, we can either split the bill evenly or unfortunately we wouldn't be able to split the bill at all.
