

CONFERENCE RETREATS AT BANNISTERS PORT STEPHENS

BANNISTERS PORT STEPHENS

Bannisters Port Stephens is a contemporary coastal hideaway only 2.5 hours' drive north of Sydney and 20 minutes from Newcastle airport.

We are located in Soldiers Point, with mesmerising views of Nelson Bay. Renovated extensively in 2018, our flexible spaces exude modern Australian design with a subtle nod to Palm Springs. We have 78 rooms and suites, with paperbark garden views on the south side of the property and panning bay vistas in our eastern facing rooms and suites.

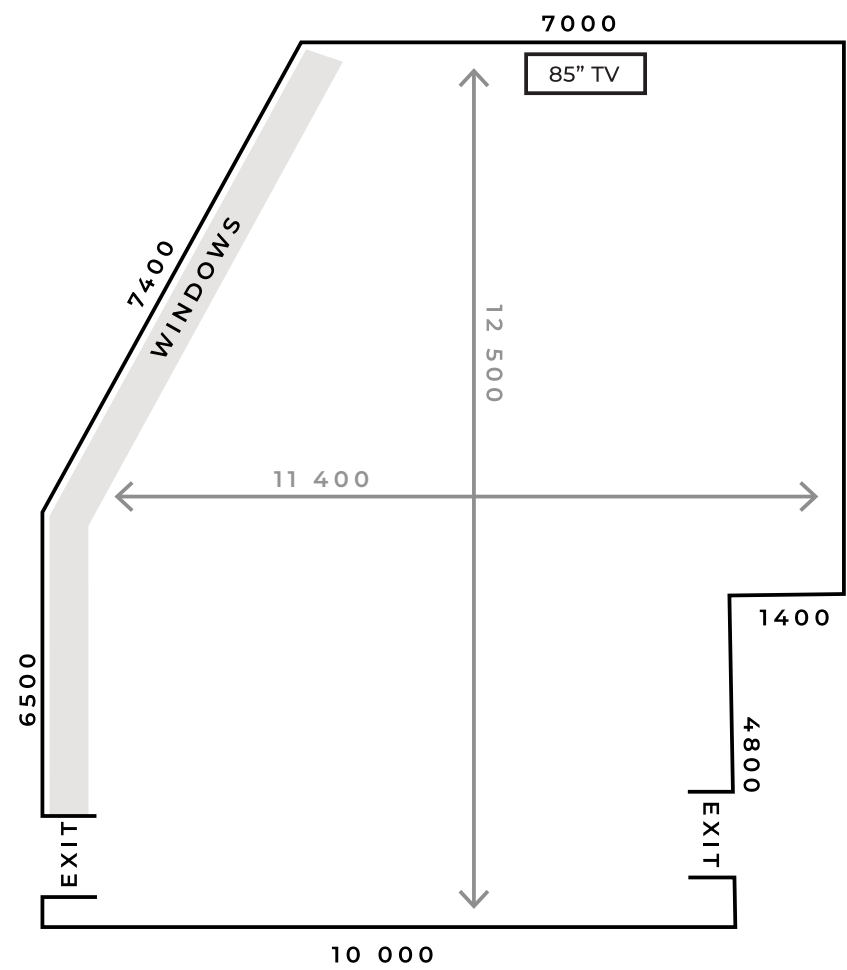

Conveniently located on the mid-north coast of NSW, our hotel offers a contemporary corporate retreat or conference facilities for you and your team. We can accommodate a range of events from boardroom style to hotel takeovers for up to 150 guests.

If you want to treat the team you cannot go past Spa Bannisters. With an ever-changing seasonal menu, there is a range of treatments to experience for even the most seasoned spa-goer.

CATERING & DINING OPTIONS

The delegate package includes sweet and savoury bites at morning and afternoon tea, as well as a grazing table of sandwiches and wraps and seasonal salads for lunch.

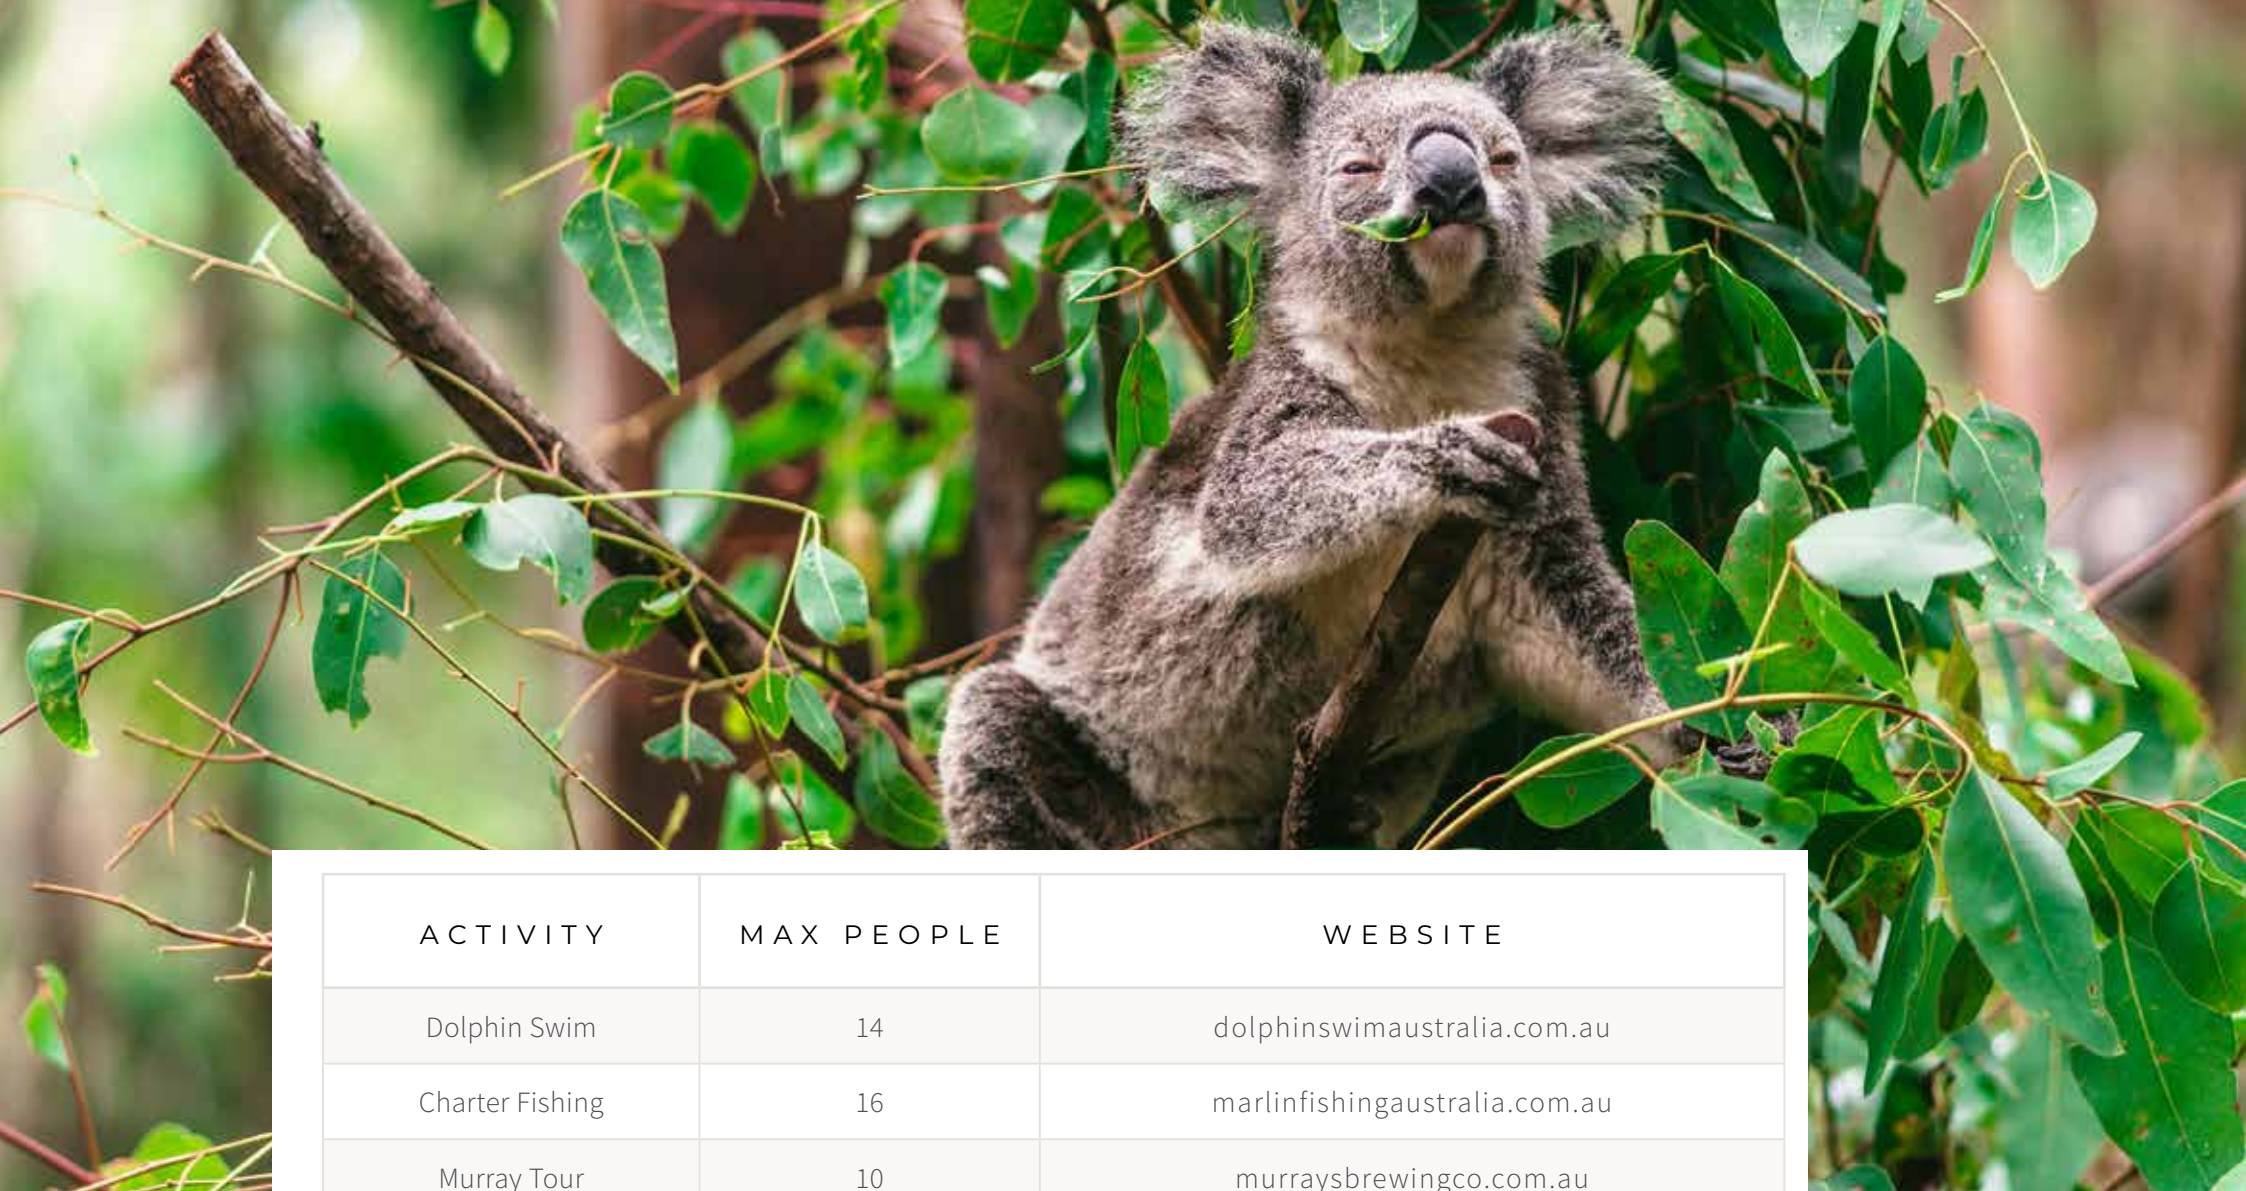

Once you are done for the day, experience our three dining venues. Your conference coordinator will work with our Head Chef Mitchell Turner to organise select menus for your group.

Our onsite dining venues including the iconic Rick Stein at Bannisters. Celebrity chef Rick Stein's seafood restaurant champions the freshest of Port Stephens 'dock to plate' produce and Hunter Valley wines.

Julio's is known for its sweeping views of Port Stephens bay complimented by modern-Mexican bites and cocktails. Our gastro-pub, The Cheeky Dog, serves antipasto and hand-rolled gourmet pizzas in a relaxed and open plan setting.
