Event Space

Set across five Grade II listed Victorian townhouses, The Columbia has a number of unique and versatile event spaces overlooking Hyde Park, perfect for your next Christmas party.

From large halls, to more intimate spaces, our event rooms boast private balconies, vintage chandeliers, elegant panelling and 4-meter-high ceilings.

Plus, we're a stone's throw away from Paddington, Lancaster Gate and Notting Hill - handy for those travelling from across London and further afield.

A building with true history

Built in 1856 by Sancton Wood, The Columbia is made up of 5 Grade II listed French Renaissance townhouses. Overlooking one of London's greatest parks, our townhouses have seen many lives - from a park-side residence for opium dealers, merchants and generals, to a war-time Red Cross hospital run by Lady Randolph Churchill, a stint as an Air Force officers' club in the 60s and the hotel of choice for bands on the rise from the 80s to the early 00s. We're proud of our spirited past.

We've had the likes of Amy Winehouse, Lenny Kravitz, Stereophonics, Iggy Pop, Scissor Sisters, Slade, and Kings of Leon staying with us, with The Columbia becoming a home away from home for them whilst on the road. After living with us for 6 months, Oasis even decided to name their song 'Columbia' after many 'nights of nonsense' at the hotel.
