Loyal Friend Located on Hope Street, a much loved address in Liverpool's Georgian Quarter, the doors to our Taproom have welcomed many a local and friend over the past 200 years. From a former private residence to a private members club, and nightclub to high-end dining, the building underwent a refurbishment in early 2025 with the aim of respectfully restoring it to former glories. Set across three floors, The Dog & Collar comprises of the beautifully designed taproom with traditional carpeting, two log burners and intimate snugs. The stunning Dining Room is located on the first floor, with our Private Dining space, and the lower floor is home to The Tavern, a room of past-times, with low ceilings and modern artworks, perfect for viewing live sport.

Private Dining Our Private Dining Room is located on the first floor and can sit up to 14 people. The space, divided by a beautiful antique inspired curtain, is perfect for an intimate dining experience with friends. It features a hidden large HD TV and custom seating plan, perfect for a unique corporate event.

Dining Room Our stunning Dining Room with its original varnished floor, fireplace and exposed brickwork is home to a food menu that brings together traditional pub grub, familiar British comfort food and quality cuts, accompanied by an adventurous drinks list of wines and local ales.
