

WILTON ROOM

The Wilton Room offers a refined atmosphere and seamless facilities for intimate meetings and presentations. Beautifully designed by John Heah, this well-proportioned room is a distinguished business venue and social space alike. Guests are ensured their total privacy and personalised service from our staff, whilst technological facilities can be tailored to suit your every need. The Wilton Room interconnects with the Knightsbridge Room which can be used for cocktail receptions or as a break-out room or the space can be fully opened out for larger occasions.
