GETTING HERE

Both our venues are easily accessible by car, on foot and public transport. We are also only 9 minutes from Birmingham Airport for those traveling to us from further afield.

PARKING

Q-Park Brindleyplace Car Park is conveniently located just a few minutes away. By booking your parking space online you can save up to 40% on the daily parking cost and guarantee your space. UVB customers can save an extra 10% by using the promo code REP10 when you book. Download the Q-Park Rewards app for a range of local restaurant offers and every six scans gives you a free parking period!

Utilita Arena Car Parks are located minutes away from our venues. It has three public car parks you can use during your visit with the closest being the north car park, a 6 minute walk away.

The following car parks are also close by: NIA, Town Hall Multi-Storey, Tennant Street and Holliday Street.

BLUE BADGES HOLDERS Parking for blue badge holders is available outside Brindley Drive Car Park and Cambridge Street at the rear of the building.

BUSES Our venues are situated in central Birmingham and are easily accessible by bus from most areas. For further information about buses call the Network West Midlands Journey Planner hotline on 0871 200 223 or click here.

TRAINS We are within walking distance of Birmingham's New Street Station, Snow Hill and Moor Street stations, which are all within one mile of The Rep and The Library of Birmingham. Train times are available at the National Rail website or traintimes.org.uk

WEST MIDLANDS METRO Catch The Metro Network from New Street or Snow Hill train station to the Centenary Square tram stop,, right outside our buildings..

A 'city hop' fare of £1 is available from the Jewellery Quarter to Centenary Square including all of the stops in-between. The Metro will run every 8 mins Monday to Friday. More details including a journey planner can be found at westmidlandsmetro.com.

AIR If you are flying into Birmingham, use the airport link shuttle from Birmingham International Airport to Birmingham International train station, then board one of the regular trains to Birmingham New Street Station.
