What Happens on the Day:

You will enjoy a perfume consultation with a trained perfume expert. During your experience you will learn a little about the construction of perfumes including why some scents last longer than others and why perfumes change throughout the day. This knowledge will then be used to help you construct your fragrance.

When you understand a little more, you'll begin to undertake the really exciting part of your experience the creating of your fragrance! Your signature blend will be formed from your choice of 18 exquisite blends. You can include as many as you want! Each blend has been designed by a master perfumer famed for creating many of the fragrances that sell from high street shelves. Each blend is sourced from the finest ingredients from around the globe, including night-blooming jasmine from Africa, exotic spices from The Orient and the rich, aromatic and sensual vanilla from Southern France. Every care has been taken to ensure that the very best ingredients go into making your fragrance.

Having created a fragrance, it's time to make it up! The perfume for you to take home will be made up there and then, so there is no waiting you can wear your creation immediately! Your consultant will give you a choice of bottles and then blend it for you in front of your eyes!

Finally, the most important part of your experience naming your unique signature fragrance. Every great scent has a name and so should yours. After the event, you will receive a fantastic certificate that includes the name of your fragrance and its ingredients for when you are ready for a top-up!
