Sustainability Commitments

As a leading supplier to care homes, nurseries and schools in the UK, we at Gompels are deeply committed to sourcing and providing sustainable products for our customers. We have made some fantastic progress already:

You love to contribute!

Since 2021 you have offset 350 tonnes CO2e

That's the weight of a Boeing 777X

You love to keep it clean!

You have used over 15 million plastic-free wipes

That's 89 tonnes of wipes that will compost naturally in landfill

You love to support local!

UK Tree Planting is the most popular project selected at the checkout

GREAT LOW PRICES

Best used with our net pants

As a Gompels own-brand, Suresy have developed a range of premium incontinence products designed to cover all incontinence needs, including super absorbent pads, chair protection and bedding protectors.

Designed with the end-user in mind, Suresy products have a breathable design which helps keep the skin dry and reduce the risk of rashes and sores. The quick dry layer draws fluids away from the skin, locking them away in the core of the product. The super stretchy leak proof cuffs ensure that the pads shape to any individual and the fabric-back design is rustle-free and discreet.

Why Choose Polycarbonate Over Melamine?

Durable: Virtually unbreakable, withstanding daily wear and tear, ensuring a longer lifespan than melamine.

Microwave-Safe: Safe for microwave use, unlike melamine.

Light & Strong: Combines lightweight convenience with durability.

Temperature Control: Keeps food warm, stays cool to touch.

Hygienic: Non-porous, meaning it won't absorb food particles or bacteria, easy to clean and dishwasher safe.

Eco-Friendly: Polycarbonate is 100% recyclable, promoting sustainability.

As a Gompels own-brand, Suresy have developed a range of premium incontinence products designed to cover all incontinence needs, including super absorbent pads, chair protection and bedding protectors.

Designed with the end-user in mind, Suresy products have a breathable design which helps keep the skin dry and reduce the risk of rashes and sores. The quick dry layer draws fluids away from the skin, locking them away in the core of the product. The super stretchy leak proof cuffs ensure that the pads shape to any individual and the fabric-back design is rustle-free and discreet.

Adjustable overbed table

Absolutely brilliant order, well packed and delivered. I definitely recommend purchasing from them, I have ordered many times, really good quality products & prices are brilliant too. Thank you Gompels!

★★★★★

Without fail, we have received all of our orders promptly and perfectly packaged with the occasional freebie thrown in. All of the products that we have ordered have been really high quality and to cut the 'icing on the cake' we are saving money because it is all so reasonable. I would 100% recommend using Gompels for hassle-free ordering.

★★★★★

Amazing price of this item - couldn't be found cheaper on any other website. Excellent time scale of delivery - Thank you Gompels!

★★★★★

Brilliant service, my sleep mats arrived the next day. They're great, firm but comfortable for my little ones. As an added bonus the children loved playing with the large box they arrived in!! Thank you - very happy!

★★★★★

A very cost-effective company for all needs from the very young to the elderly and prices a comparative and postage is fast and efficient. If a problem arises it is sorted with a no hassle policy and rectified immediately with a great team member particularly mention to Stuart who are built into the company's website so you can keep a log of costs and stock levels very well put together reducing time and cost.

★★★★★

Ordered a big order in the afternoon and had it delivered by the same time the next day. Very fast delivery which is impressive! All products are great quality and never fault.
