Qualification Overview

The OCNLR Level 2 Adult Social Care Certificate qualification has been developed in partnership with Skills for Care to provide a regulated qualification that covers the requirements of the existing Care Certificate that has been available since 2015. This new version offers a revised and updated set of standards that define the knowledge, skills and behaviours expected of specific job roles in the health and social care sectors.

The Care Certificate is made up of the 15 minimum standards that should be covered if you are 'new to care' and should form part of a robust induction programme.

Currently 54% of direct care workers do not have a level 2 or above qualification. The introduction of the Level 2 Adult Social Care Certificate qualification will provide a common and robust standard which is quality assured and helps recognise and sustain our care workforce.

Qualification details

The qualification is suitable for use in a range of learning situations and the structure allows for flexibility in delivery and assessment, enabling assessment evidence to be generated in a range of different ways including workplace performance.

The OCNLR Level 2 Adult Social Care Certificate qualification is regulated by Ofqual, the qualifications regulator for England, and is registered on the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF).

Who the qualification is for

The qualifications are suitable for learners who:

- Are new to working in adult social care and have not completed the Care Certificate previously.

Entry guidance

Learners must be aged over 16.

Learners should be capable of recording responses to the assessments at an appropriate level of English. We recommend that centres carry out their own initial assessment activity to determine this. Centres may need to refer learners to basic skills provision in order for them to be able to access and succeed on the Adult Care Certificate.

Employer specific induction and mandatory training is to be completed prior to the learner starting the qualification. However, the employer can decide if the qualification can be completed alongside employer specific induction and mandatory training.

Assessment and Moderation

Assessment process

Assessment and Moderation arrangements for these qualifications have been designed following the principles set out by Skills for Care & Development in the following three documents:

- Joint Skills for Care and Skills for Health Assessment principles
- Skills for Care & Development Assessment principles
- Skills for Care and the Joint Awarding Body Quality Group \(JABQG\) additional assessment principles guidance

OCN London have provided a full set of Assessment Activities that have been carefully mapped to the standards for centres to use. Should a centre choose not to use the Assessments provided they must provide a set of Assessments to their External Quality Advisor for approval prior to the course running.

Tasks are either knowledge and understanding or practically based. Learners are expected to answer all the questions and to demonstrate all the practical skills as set out in the Assessment booklet. Units are not graded.

These will be Assessed internally by the centre staff and then Internally Quality Assured by the centre.

OCN London will Externally Quality Assure the provision at all centres offering the qualification.

Standardisation

Standardisation is a process that promotes consistency in the understanding and application of standards in relation to assessment. It:

- compares assessment judgements from different tutor/assessors;
- promotes consistent judgements by different tutor/assessors;
- identifies good practice in assessment;
- promotes the sharing of good practice in assessment between Centre staff.

Standardisation events should be held periodically within centres to ensure consistent and effective assessment practice. Standardisation events will also be held by OCN London, and it is a requirement that each Centre offering units from the qualification must contribute assessment materials and learners' evidence for standardisation, if requested. OCN London will notify Centres of the required sample for standardisation purposes and assessment materials, learners' evidence and tutor/assessor feedback may be collected by External Quality Assurers.

Learners with particular requirements

If learners have particular requirements, the Centre should visit the Access to Fair Assessment Policy and Procedure which gives clear guidance on the reasonable adjustments and arrangements that can be made to take account of disability or learning difficulty, without compromising the achievement of the assessment criteria.

ESOL Learners

Although there is no requirement for learners to have achieved formal English Language qualifications, they should have sufficient command of the English language to be able to answer questions both orally and in writing.

RPL

Many prospective learners may have achieved elements of the existing Care Certificate or other relevant CPD courses/qualifications. OCN London have a comprehensive RPL policy and will support centres in recognising/establishing where it is appropriate to use RPL as evidence of previous achievement. This may be for the whole of the Adult Care Certificate or individual units.

Requirements for tutor/assessors

In addition to being qualified to make assessment decisions, each tutor/assessor must be capable of carrying out the full requirements within the competency of the units they are assessing. This competence should be maintained annually through clearly demonstrable continuing learning and professional development. Expert witnesses can be used where they have suitable expertise for specialist areas. The use of expert witnesses should be determined and agreed by the tutor/assessor.

Each tutor/assessor should possess relevant knowledge and understanding of the subject and so be able to make robust and reliable assessment decisions in relation to the subject. It may be necessary to utilise more than one Assessor to cover some areas of expertise.

The following list of qualifications are approved for Assessors:
