Qualifications 2026-2027

OCN London

Our mission is to help create a fairer society where everyone, whatever their educational background, has an opportunity to benefit from learning and realise their potential.

OCN London is a national not-for-profit awarding organisation that offers qualifications and Access to Higher Education Diplomas. We work together with a wide range of educators and employers to help people to learn and achieve to the best of their ability.

We also offer a range of additional services to meet the different needs of our broad customer base. From supporting organisations to gain external recognition for the quality of their learning and CPD programmes, to accrediting bespoke training that is unique to an organisation.

We know you always have a choice and that's why we set our charges to provide value for money whilst ensuring we can continue to deliver the quality of service and support you have come to expect and deserve from us.

Pre-Access qualifications

Pre-Access

For those learners who are not quite ready to progress into one of our Access to HE Diploma courses we provide a wide range of qualifications that can be used for Pre-Access programmes.

The Level 2 Skills for Further Study qualifications are ideal for combined Pre-Access that prepare learners for different progression routes, including:

- Humanities;
- Social Science;
- Science;
- Health and Human Sciences;
- Nursing and Midwifery.

The Level 2 Skills for Professions qualifications are available in nine curriculum areas. Their size makes them ideal to be delivered alongside GCSE English and/or maths. The qualifications include a variety of learning skills units to build essential study skills in addition to curriculum specific units.

The Level 2 Qualifications in Progression offer maximum flexibility for providers to select and combine units into a Pre-Access programme that meets the diverse needs of learners and prepares them for a wide range of Access to HE Diplomas.

Microcredentials

Microcredentials

Small, but mighty

Micro denotes small, and credential refers to a qualification and/or an achievement.

These small qualifications support individuals to learn and earn new skills and knowledge, advance in their careers, or even change careers completely.

They are frequently on-demand, online courses that can be done in a learners own time and grant certification upon completion. They are designed to be fast, accessible, and precise.

Microcredentials are an ideal option for:

- Employers looking to embed new skills and knowledge within their teams.
- Demand-led skills and knowledge development in specified sectors, regions or vocational groups.
- Schools, FE Colleges, Training Providers and Universities, looking to add specific skills to update or enhance an existing qualification or career pathway, at all levels from Entry to Degree level.
- Any type of organisation looking to offer flexible, accessible and relevant learning options, as part of their CPD activities.

ESOL Skills for Life qualifications

ESOL Skills for Life

Empowering people to seek and gain meaningful employment and fulfil their potential.

Our ESOL Skills for Life qualifications were developed using the knowledge and expertise gained from many years of working with centres to accredit their ESOL provision.

The qualifications facilitate language development to help people to:

- Gain or progress within meaningful and sustainable employment;
- Develop skills that support engagement in daily life activities;
- Develop further independence;
- Feel part of and connected to wider society;
- Build confidence in socialising with others in different contexts;
- Access services and benefits.

We place authenticity firmly at the heart of our on-demand ESOL assessments, ensuring that we use real language in realistic contexts so that each task offers up a meaningful experience that learners may connect with and encounter in real life.

ESOL International qualifications

ESOL International

Our ESOL International qualifications were developed using the knowledge and experience gained from many years working with centres to accredit their ESOL provision.

All ESOL International qualifications are referenced against the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and help people to:

- Gain or progress within meaningful and sustainable employment;
- Demonstrate competence against the CEFR and Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF);
- Gain an Ofqual regulated qualification.

Assessments take place during regularly scheduled assessment windows and are 75% externally assessed.

See our website for further information.

Personal Development and Life Skills qualifications

Personal Development and Life Skills

Supporting people with their personal, social, health and economic wellbeing.

OCN London's personal development and life skills qualifications cover a range of skills that people need to help them lead safe, healthy and fulfilling lives.

Our short qualifications can be delivered as short courses or as part of a broader programme.

Our life skills qualifications can be used to design a tailored and engaging curriculum that supports independent and healthy living, and the development of skills needed to progress to sustainable employment.

Employability qualifications

Employability

Preparing people for employment with work-related and transferable skills.

These qualifications are aimed at people who:

- Are on a vocational programme;
- Are preparing to enter employment for the first time;
- Are looking to improve their skills for a return to work;
- Are offenders needing evidence of work-readiness on release;
- Have special educational needs or disabilities.

Our employability qualifications can be used as evidence to demonstrate work readiness to employers. They can be embedded within vocational programmes or delivered as stand-alone qualifications in a range of environments including colleges, training centres, day centres, prisons and the workplace.
