Initial Report (Tuesday morning)
Supplementary Report

PRE-ASSEMBLY MEETING OF THE BUSINESS COMMITTEE

1. The General Assembly Business Committee met on Thursday morning, 4 June, 2026. It received a number of reports regarding preparations of the General Assembly.
2. The Committee considered the draft of late and additional items of business submitted by the notified date and agreed the following:
 - (a) That the amendment submitted by Rev Craig Lynn, with regard to Business Item 13 (General Council Section 3), Resolution 15 (Reports page 322) be licensed.
 - (b) That the amendment submitted by Rev Dr Sam Bostock, with regard to Business Item 17 (General Council Section 4), Resolution 18 (Reports page 323) be licensed.
 - (c) That the General Council be permitted to bring a verbal report during the Private Session on Friday morning.
 - (d) That all of the remaining material in this Supplementary Reports Booklet be licensed, and instruct that it be made available, in printed form from Tuesday morning 9 June onwards and online, when available, and that the Acting Clerk be permitted to make any minor corrections.
3. The Committee considered Item 20 of the 2026 Assembly Business regarding the Private Session. As a Confidential Private Session Report Booklet will be made available at Registration from Tuesday morning, the Business Committee recognised that members would not have had the opportunity to submit any substantive proposed amendments in advance. Therefore, the Committee agreed that if such amendments were to be made, they should be with the Acting Clerk no later than noon on Thursday, 11 June, 2026. This would allow the Business Committee to licence any such amendments, if in order.

A resolution to this effect is appended as Resolution 3.a of the Initial Report of the Business Committee.
4. Livestreaming and Recording will be switched off during the Reports of the College Principal and Clerk Appointment Panels.

General Assembly Business Committee Initial Report,
Additional Resolution 3.a page 321:

- 3.a That any substantive proposed amendments to the report(s) in the Confidential Private Session Report Booklet be with the Acting Clerk no later than 12 noon on Thursday, 11 June, 2026 for licensing by the Business Committee.

General Assembly Business Committee Initial Report,

6. That the General Council Introduction, including the Initial Report of the General Assembly Business Committee, be received.

ADDITIONAL REPORTS FROM OTHER CHURCH ASSEMBLIES

WORLD COMMUNION OF REFORMED CHURCHES

“The unheard voice – the persevering witness of women in war”:
WCRC, Lebanon, April 2025 and
27th General Council of the World Communion of Reformed
Churches: Thailand, 14–23 October 2025

The Rev Dr Liz Hughes reports:

1. The Council Theme was “Persevere in your Witness” based on Hebrews 12:1 and the formal opening address was given by the then President Rev Najla Kasab, who is from our Global Mission partner NESSL (National Evangelical Synod of Syria and Lebanon). The event was hosted by the Church of Christ in Thailand, and held in the city of Chiang-Mai. There were approximately 400 delegates representing 117 member churches – two thirds of the 170-strong active WCRC membership – along with many others attending visitors and hosts, observers and members from other church entities from across the globe.
2. It was such a thrill to be reunited with so many of our PCI Global Mission partners – old and new, from Malawi, Kenya, Hungary, Indonesia, Pakistan, Jamaica, Lebanon, Syria, Brazil, South Sudan and Myanmar. Many of the delegates we had met at our own General Assembly and others we had visited through the work of our own Global Mission Council. It was obvious that the support of such a gathering meant a great deal to our global colleagues.
3. A highlight of the programme for me was the opportunity to visit a refugee camp on the Myanmar border. I was part of a small group who were able to spend time at a theological college in one of the camps where we were able to talk and pray with young stateless refugee MDiv students – some of whom had parents who were still living precarious lives within Myanmar.
4. The morning worship sessions at the assembly were so refreshing – full of creativity in music, song and prayer – offered in many languages but with translation in our hands – as well as the privilege of listening to challenging bible studies led by speakers like Rev Munther Isaac, from Palestine, author of “Christ in the Rubble”.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORTS, BELFAST, 2026

5. I was also struck by the approach to decision making which enables every single delegate present first to hear proposals in a plenary session and then to meet in allocated small groups to express their views freely and discern a way forward. Small group rewording was then forwarded to the redrafting committee who prepared amended proposals for the whole assembly to engage in decision making – typically on the following morning – and throughout the process we were being continually reminded that we must be guided together by the Spirit of God.
6. A celebratory service took place on the Sunday afternoon recognising the 150th anniversary of the Communion at which past and present office bearers took part. There was a moving foot washing ceremony representing a theological process of new understanding and reconciliation with anabaptist brothers and sisters with the leadership of both confessing wrong attitudes of past days which had led to the persecution of the other.
7. At the Women’s Caucus which, along with the Youth Caucus, took place before the full Assembly programme a report was made on the “The unheard voice – the persevering witness of women in war” a pre- assembly event held in Lebanon in April 2025 and organised by WCRC Europe for women church leaders in various roles from two of our partner churches – the Hungarian Reformed Church in Ukraine, and the National Evangelical Church of Syria and Lebanon. PCI Global Mission representation was requested because of our experience through the years of conflict in Northern Ireland and involvement in peace building as a church. Heather Clements and myself were privileged to participate. Hearing from women presently living and working in war was profoundly poignant and we have regularly been sharing their stories and their prayer concerns with the wider church. A follow up gathering is being planned with the same group in Lebanon in 2026.
8. It has been a privilege to attend all of these WCRC organised events – to meet with familiar global mission partners and also to meet with Christian leaders from parts of the world where we have little or no formal partnership or relationship and to hear their experience of daily life and ministry. It was also a challenge to be exposed to the plethora of justice concerns which impact other parts of the reformed communion and being reminded in the process that if one member of the body suffers, so do we all.

CHURCH OF IRELAND GENERAL SYNOD 2026 7-9 May 2026 – Newcastle Co Down

The Very Rev Dr Noble McNeely reports:

1. The 2026 meeting of the General Synod of the Church of Ireland took place in Newcastle in County Down from May 7–9. For the first time since 2019, General Synod returned to meeting in person for three days with the venue being the Slieve Donard Hotel. Noble and Florence McNeely were present as the Presbyterian Church in Ireland delegates.

2. The Synod took place in the hotel's Grand Ballroom which accommodated very comfortably the 600 plus clergy and lay people attending. Other additional rooms were well suited for extra meetings, catering and the many exhibits and information stands provided by missions and agencies.
3. The Synod began appropriately with a service of Holy Communion. The praise was wonderfully led by a group of musicians from Hillsborough Parish – the singing was inspiring and enthusiastic. The communion was led by The Most Rev John McDowell, Archbishop of Armagh and the sermon was delivered by The Most Rev Patricia Storey, Bishop of Meath and Kildare. Bishop Storey preached her swansong sermon at the Synod as her retirement is impending.
4. The main business meeting began with the President's Address. He referred particularly to the issues of social media and migration in a frank and thought-provoking speech. He said that social media was a phenomenon that should have democratised the world, but instead had concentrated power in the hands of "a few grotesquely rich men." He spoke about AI and its increasing influence. He argued that neither 'truth' nor 'fact' could be artificially generated. The process of AI-integration is all the more dangerous not because it is manipulated by the powerful, but because it is increasingly accepted by us as a logical choice.
5. The Archbishop spoke of how attitudes to equality and migration are "one of the great touchstones and tests of our Christian authenticity." He said to care for the stranger within our midst, regardless of ethnic differences, is the principal lesson of the parable of the Good Samaritan, and defines for us what we mean by the word 'neighbour'.
6. The bulk of the business on the first day were the debates on 5 Bills (resolutions in PCI jargon) that spilled over to the morning of the second day and were only agreed on the closing day of the Synod. These Bills were very detailed and created much deliberation and discussion about procedure. Four of the Bills were enacted. The Bills were related to (i) clergy disciplinary processes, (ii) provision of financial support for clergy who can't continue due to ill health, (iii) to introduce mechanisms to address intractable breakdown of relations between incumbent and members of a parish, (iv) reviewing of safeguarding policies.
7. Other reports over the three days included representation from the Youth Department, the Board of Education, Council for Mission, Commission on Ministry, Pioneering Ministry, Christian Unity and Dialogue. The reporting and debates followed the general pattern of the PCI General Assembly. Some discourses were strongly expressed, some were conciliatory and some quite humorous.
8. The Commission on Ministry reported new events to support clergy bearing heavy workloads. A new pilot initiative was commended – Clergy Support and Wellbeing Programme – which will promote an understanding of stress, dealing with conflict in ministry, building resilience and rekindling vocation. Another new initiative was highlighted which will support Archdeacons in their heavy workload with diocesan duties added to their parochial duties. Interestingly there seemed to be support for the view that the pathway to ordination had become very academic. The emphasis on a Master's Degree in Theology, was thought to be too high a requirement and out of reach for some candidates.

9. The Synod was meeting in the Diocese of Down and Dromore and on Friday afternoon some time was set aside to have a presentation on the mission and development of ministry in the geographical area of the diocese. A video drew attention to the work that was expanding in some parishes and a new Christian from the Ballybeen Parish shared his testimony. The local church of Dundrum reported its recent recovery and flourishing, and how it is impacting the Dundrum community through programmes of outreach and social witness. The Bishop of Down and Dromore, The Rt Rev David McClay, spoke about intentional mission in the diocese and illustrated the initiative by referring to the three ships of 'Discipleship', 'Leadership' and 'Apostleship'. He quoted his mantra for sustaining of mission in the diocese; "If we don't keep evangelism at the top of our agenda it falls off the bottom."
10. Florence and I are extremely grateful for the warm reception we received and for the hospitality at the Synod. We enjoyed the opportunity to meet longtime friends and meet representatives from other churches in Ireland and England. We were encouraged by the spirit of the Synod and the vision for growth and revitalising of the Church through its emphasis on pioneering and church planting.

MEMORIAL RECORD

Rev Ian McDowell

The Rev Ian Strain McDowell, BA, MA, BD, Minister Emeritus (Released), Christian Aid Secretary, died on 17 May 2026, in the ninety-fourth year of his age and the sixty-ninth year of his ministry. Born in Kilrea on 16 January 1933, his father was the Rev George McDowell, minister of Second Kilrea and Boveedy, and his mother was Gladys Mary Strain. He was educated at Kilrea Primary School, Cabin Hill Preparatory School, and Campbell College. He studied physics at Trinity College, Dublin, from 1950-54 when he was awarded his BA (converted to MA in 1993). Sensing a call to ordained ministry, his theological training was at the Presbyterian College, Belfast and Princeton Seminary from 1954-57, leading to his licensing by the Presbytery of Coleraine in Second Kilrea on 23 June 1957. Prior to that, while serving as Student Assistant in Lowe Memorial Finaghy, he met Pamela Sythes – they married in 1961. In the meantime, he was ordained by the Presbytery of Belfast as Ordained Assistant in Taughmonagh Church Extension on 23 March 1958. This was followed by his installation by the Presbytery of Route in Mosside on 2 May 1961, where he served until 31 January 1967. He gained a BD from Trinity College, Dublin, in 1963 and served as Clerk of the Synod of Ballymena and Coleraine from 1964 to 1967. Parish ministry continued in Molesworth, Cookstown, where he was installed by the Presbytery of Tyrone on 1 February 1967. In Mosside and Cookstown, Mr McDowell developed close relationships with other church leaders from all denominations. A change of direction took place when he was installed by the Presbytery of South Belfast to the Recognised Ministry of Christian Aid Secretary on 11 November 1973. His firm belief in the Kingdom of God and deep convictions about peace and justice made him eminently suited for this role, from which he retired after twenty-four years on 16 January 1998, receiving the status of 'Released' on 4 October 2022. He also served as Convener of the Inter-Church Relations Board from 1972-78. On moving to Belfast in 1973, he became a member of Malone and then Fisherwick congregations. In the latter years, he was a member of St John's, Newtownbreda, and his membership and attendance at worship continued right up the end of his life and he proved to be an encouragement to the ministers of these congregations over the years. He had a commitment to the radical welcome of Christ, an open heart, an open mind, and an open heart to all, leaving a legacy of peace and reconciliation. We commend Pamela, their children Linda, Peter and Christine and their families to the grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ. "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is his faithfulness." (Lamentations 3.22-23)

GENERAL COUNCIL

Amended Resolution – Resolution 6. p.321

6. That the General Council Introduction (including the Initial Report of the General Assembly Business Committee) be received.

ITEM 4 – COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL WITNESS (Tuesday morning) pp.184-194 and 325 Supplementary Report

1. The Council for Social Witness has recognised for some time that as part of our recovery plan the Council would benefit from a re-structure process. Therefore we have welcomed the engagement with the Structures and Resources Review Panel. We have also benefitted from consultation in particular with the Support Services Committee and also with the General Council. The Council for Social Witness has a clear opinion on the three options offered in the Structures and Resources Panel Review Report namely, the option to become an agency with links to PCI. However, it has to be said that whatever option is considered, all require that CSW has a successful recovery plan. We pursue this with determination.
2. In March this year we received an unexpected and disappointing end of year financial report for 2025. The previous years financial report had been encouraging and we had hoped that our main recovery strategy of supporting and mentoring our services' managers, in bringing improvement to all areas of the service that would strengthen our finances, would be successful. In this regard, our senior management team and the services' managers achieved considerable and worthy progress. Nearly all our services achieved financial viability with operational costs but, when the cost of much needed building repair and compliancy improvements were added, some were in major deficit. Currently our cumulated deficit at end of year 2025 has amounted to £3.68m.

Additional resolution 1.a p.325

- 1.a That the General Assembly recognises the necessity of a recovery plan in whatever restructuring option is undertaken and welcomes the collaboration of the Council for Social Witness with the Support Services Committee and the General Council in exploring and finalising decisions in that recovery plan.

Supplementary Report

Assisted Dying and Euthanasia Task Group

1. At the end of April 2026, we welcomed the fall of The Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill, when it ran out of parliamentary time during its passage through the House of Lords. As this Bill fell and was not defeated, there is always the possibility that it may be reintroduced in the new parliamentary session, so we are not out of the woods yet. The Task Group will continue to maintain a watching brief on this important issue and is committed to engaging with all concerned.

2. At the same time, as a denomination, we renewed our call for ‘the mainstreaming, investing in and strengthening of palliative care services across these islands that support those who are nearing the end of their lives.’
3. In a joint statement, the Moderator of the General Assembly and the Council Convener pointed out that:

“Over the years we have consistently affirmed and reaffirmed the importance and innate dignity of every human life from conception to death as a precious gift from God. Following the completion of the initial stages of the Bill in the House of Commons last June, we said that it was ‘a profoundly dark turning point for the UK’. We are very thankful and relieved that with the fall of the Bill this turning point has now been halted and unnecessary pressure on a haemorrhaging NHS, which works so hard to heal and preserve life, has been avoided.”
4. “As a Church we believe that well-resourced palliative care is the safest, most dignified and compassionate way forward, not just physically, but mentally, emotionally and spiritually. This is the hallmark of a mature, caring and compassionate society, not the state’s ability to assist in the suicide of its citizens.”
5. In the context of increasing public discussion around assisted dying legislation across these islands we, as a Church, have an important opportunity not only to affirm the sanctity and dignity of human life, but also to demonstrate practically our commitment to compassionate care for those approaching the end of life.
6. As a positive and constructive contribution by the Church, we will continue to advocate strongly for equitable and sustainable statutory funding for Hospice and Specialist Palliative Care services through the NHS and Health and Social Care systems, recognising that access to high quality palliative care should not be a postcode lottery nor depend primarily upon charitable fundraising. We are disappointed that in Northern Ireland Palliative Care services continue to be regarded as the ‘icing on the cake.’ On the other hand, we are gratified that in the Republic of Ireland, Palliative Care services are regarded as a core medical service and, as such, are much better funded and resourced.
7. The Assisted Suicide and Euthanasia Task Group is planning a conference to explore additional complementary ways we could support the palliative care community without replacing the responsibility of government to provide core funding. Practical initiatives might include the establishment of bursaries to support palliative care education and training for District Nurses, Hospital Nurses, Allied Health Professionals, or Palliative Care Chaplains, particularly in areas of deprivation or rural need.

8. In response to the resolution passed at last year's General Assembly, we call on every congregation to hold an annual "Palliative Care Support Sunday" where congregations can reflect prayerfully and practically on the needs of frail older people, carers, the dying, and the bereaved within their local communities. Such a focus could help foster compassionate neighbourliness in what is often described as a death-denying society, while also recognising and supporting the emotional, spiritual, and moral burden frequently carried by healthcare workers in palliative and end-of-life care.
9. Prayer, pastoral encouragement, volunteering, befriending, respite support, and public recognition of the value of palliative care are all areas where the Church can offer a distinctive and deeply human contribution in the spirit of Jesus Christ.

Additional Resolution 3.a (p.327) as follows:

- 3.a That the General Assembly encourage congregations to have an annual Palliative Care Support Sunday where they reflect prayerfully and practically on the needs of frail older people, carers, hospices, the dying and the bereaved within their local communities.

APPENDIX 3

Council For Social Witness

Scripture gives strong consistent grounding for caring as a core expression of Christian faith. Here are key biblical references that compel us to demonstrably care in circumstances of poverty, health care, showing mercy and providing relief from oppression and hardship.

1. God’s character: care for the vulnerable

Caring isn’t optional – it reflects who God is.

- Psalm 68:5; A father to the fatherless, a defender of widows, is God in His holy dwelling.
- Deut 10:18-19; He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the foreigner residing among you, giving them food and clothing.
- Ps 146:7-9; He upholds the cause of the oppressed and gives food to the hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free, 8 the LORD gives sight to the blind, the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down, the LORD loves the righteous. 9 The LORD watches over the foreigner and sustains the fatherless and the widow, but he frustrates the ways of the wicked.

Ministry implication: The church mirrors God’s heart by caring for those at risk.

2. Old Testament mandate: justice and compassion

- Micah 6:8; 8 He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.
- Isaiah 1:16-17; 17 Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow.

- Proverbs 31:8-9; Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute.
- Leviticus 19:9-10; When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. 10 Do not go over your vineyard a second time or pick up the grapes that have fallen. Leave them for the poor and the foreigner. I am the LORD your God.

Israel's faith was judged by how they treated the poor.

Ministry implication: Caring is obedience, not charity alone.

3. Jesus' mercy mission: good news in action

Jesus' mercy is woven into His mission.

- Luke 4:18-19; The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.

Jesus' mission includes good news to the poor and freedom for the oppressed.

- Matthew 9:35-36; 35 Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. 36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Jesus had compassion on the crowds and met their needs.

- Luke 10:33-35; But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him. 34 He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him.
- The Good Samaritan as model of practical love.

Ministry implication: Following Jesus means addressing real human need.

4. Judgement and discipleship: caring as an evidence of faith

Caring for others is presented as a measure of authentic faith.

- Matthew 25:41-45; "Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, 43 I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.' 44 "They also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?' 45 "He will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.'

Not to serve the hungry, sick and imprisoned for the believer is no more an option than not serving Jesus.

- James 1:27; Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

Religion that God our Father accepts is to look after orphans and widows.

- James 2:14-17; What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? 15 Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. 16 If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? 17 In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

Faith without works is dead.

- Isaiah 1:14-18; Your New Moon feasts and your appointed festivals I hate with all my being. They have become a burden to me; I am weary of bearing them. 15 When you spread out your hands in prayer, I hide my eyes from you; even when you offer many prayers, I am not listening. Your hands are full of blood! 16 Wash and make yourselves clean. Take your evil deeds out of my sight; stop doing wrong. 17 Learn to do right; seek justice. Defend the oppressed. Take up the cause of the fatherless; plead the case of the widow. 18 “Come now, let us settle the matter,” says the LORD. “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.

We close ourselves off from God’s favour when our faith is not demonstrated in compassion for others.

Ministry implications: Caring is a discipleship issue, not a side ministry.

5. The early church: organised caring

The first Christians provided structured care.

- Acts 2:44-45; All the believers were together and had everything in common. 4 They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need.

Believers shared possessions so no-one was in need.

- Acts 6:1-6; In those days when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenistic Jews among them complained against the Hebraic Jews because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. 2 So the Twelve gathered all the disciples together and said, “It would not be right for us to neglect the ministry of the word of God in order to wait on tables. 3 Brothers and sisters, choose seven men from among you who are known to be full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will turn this responsibility over to them.

Organised Care: Appointment of deacons to ensure fair food distribution.

- Acts 4:34-35; that there were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned land or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales and put it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone who had need.

Ministry implications: structured caring is biblically historic.

6. Apostolic teaching: ongoing responsibility

The epistles reinforce long-term commitment to caring.

- Galatians 2:9-10; James, Cephas and John, those esteemed as pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognised the grace given to me. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised. All they asked was that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing I had been eager to do all along.

Caring at a strategic level – When the apostles divided mission enterprise between Jews and Gentile there was only one condition – remember the poor.

- 1 John 3:16-18; This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. 17 If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person?

Love must be shown with actions and in truth.

- Rom 12:13; Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality.
- Heb 13:16; And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

How to please God.

Ministry implication: Caring is part of church maturity and witness.

7. Witness to the world

Caring validates the gospel

- Mt 5:16; In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Caring in the name of Christ is gospel witness – we point to God.

- Titus 3:8; This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone.

Paul's advice to Titus he is to teach "devote yourselves to doing good."

- Jeremiah 29:7; Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper."

God calls His people to care for the citizens of a pagan city.

Ministry implication: Caring strengthens mission, not distract from it.

8. Summary

Scripture consistently affirms that care for the poor, vulnerable and marginalised is a defining mark of:

- God's character,
- Christ's mercy as it is interwoven with mission
- The Church's discipleship
- The Gospel's public witness

Seven ministry implications from biblical teaching on caring

- God's character must be mirrored by the church. "Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy." (Lev19:2).
- Caring is obedience, not charity alone.
- Imitating Jesus means addressing real human need.
- Caring is a discipleship issue, not a side ministry.
- Structured caring is biblically historic.
- Caring is part of church maturity and apostolic responsibility.
- Caring strengthens mission, not distract from it, because it authenticates.

APPENDIX 4Summary DRAFT Financial Information

Please Note – The summary financial information included below is draft and still subject to change as the figures are finalised and audited in coming weeks.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OVERALL

These figures relate to the central activities of PCI. They do not include the General Investment Fund or the Pension Scheme which are shown separately below.

The draft total income for 2025 of £32.3m is 1.2% higher than the 2024 figure of £31. 9m while expenditure is 1.8% higher in 2025 at £31.6m.

These figures give an overall small surplus of £631K, but this is more than cancelled by a £2.5m loss on our investments in the General Investment Fund.

There are still some technical accounting adjustments to be processed in relation to the accounting impacts of our pension scheme. We are awaiting these figures from our pension advisers.

The charts overleaf show the proportion of income and expenditure by Council, clearly highlighting the substantial proportion of funding that flows through the Council for Social Witness.

United Appeal income was very encouraging in 2025 at £3.5m. This level of generosity from individuals and congregations allows the Councils to focus on the overall strategic delivery of their programmes of work.

It has been said before but cannot be said too much that we simply could not function as we currently do without the support of United Appeal. Thank You!

PCI PENSION SCHEME (2009)

The draft figures for the Pension Scheme show the value of our 17.5% employer contribution (24% in 2024), compared to an average employer contribution rate of 4.5% for CARE Schemes (Career Average Revalued Earnings).

Even with our high level of employer contribution, the figures show (in the ‘Net Withdrawal’ line) that we took £4.9m more out of the Scheme in 2025 than was added through contributions.

However, you can also see in the ‘Return on Investments’ line that the pension investments fared considerably better in 2025 than those in the General Investment Fund, generating a net return of almost £11m and giving the Scheme overall an increase in funds of just over £6m for the year. This compares favourably to a £6.7m loss in 2024.

In addition to managing the Scheme, we have worked closely with our Pension Administrators to connect the Scheme to the new government initiative known as the ‘Pensions Dashboard’. This Dashboard will eventually let individuals identify all of their UK based pension earnings in a single system.

GENERAL INVESTMENT FUND

Finally, the figures for the General Investment Fund (GIF) show the loss referred to above. The Investment Managers for the GIF, a firm called CCLA, did reasonably well to deliver close to their target income of £2m. However, the overall return target is a rolling average of 'CPI + 3%' and in 2025 the overall return was in fact a loss of £619K.

Trustees made use of their reserves to pay a dividend of 34p per share, which was a slight increase on the level of dividend in 2024 (33p per share) and reflects a desire to provide better levels of income from the GIF.

Taking account of the loss from investment activity and the net increase in deposits, the portfolio year end value fell disappointingly by £2.5m (3%) compared to the opening value for the year.

Conclusion

The overall financial position for PCI is strong, with a projected balance sheet value of approximately £80m. However, the financial landscape is far from settled. Falling numbers attending our congregations, coupled with increasing costs and levels of regulation mean we will need to manage carefully the coming years, while never forgetting that we worship a God who will provide for what we need.
