

Volker and JinHyeog Glissmann

Location: Blantyre, MALAWI

Mission: Theological education

September 2025

The Glissmanns are living in Malawi. Jinhyeog is involved in a local Primary School as a music teacher. Volker works off-campus as a programme developer for TEEC, the Theological Education by Extension College in Johannesburg, South Africa, and does grassroots theological training in Malawi.

One change introduced by the Constitutional Court is that presidential elections will now use a two-round system, unless a candidate wins an absolute majority in the first round. A run-off election is to be held 30 days after the first election.

Elections in September 2025

General elections are scheduled to be held in Malawi on 16 September 2025 to elect the president, the National Assembly and local councillors. In 2019, Malawi held general elections, which the Malawi Constitutional Court subsequently annulled due to voting irregularities. In 2020, the elections were held again. The 2020 election brought a change in government, with an alliance of opposition parties winning the election. A few things happened subsequently: the vice-president, and leader of one of the two big parties of the government alliance, died in a helicopter crash, the country experienced again forex and fuel shortages and high inflation.
